The ZR-3 Safe at Its Haven at Lakehurst

This exceptionally fine photograph of the ZR-3 as it was being posed into its hangar at Lakehurst, N. J., was taken by M. J. Ackerman, NEA Service and The Sun staff photographer. The act of housing the great Leviathan of the air was the last act in the thrilling adventure which brought the ZR-3 from Friedrichshafen, Germany, to America in a journey that broke all records for lighter-than-air craft, and which was marked by many thrilling experiences. The ZR-3 will be taken over by the U. S. Navy as a war reparations payment by the German government.

GIANT AIRSHIP FOUND PERFECT AFTER EPOCH-MAKING FLIGHT

While Whole World Marvelled at Their Feat the 31 Members of Party That Travelled From Germany to America in ZR-3 Today Enjoyed Full Day of Rest

LAKEHURST, N. J., Oct. 16.—While the whole world marvelled at their feat, the 31 members of the party that travelled from Germany to America in the ZR-3, today enjoyed their first full day of rest since leaving Friedrichshafen Sunday. They spent the evening before calmly telling the story of the flight in phrases that seemed almost commonplace compared to the magnitude of their accomplishment. While they talked they smoked—a pleasure that was forbidden on the ship because of the danger of an explosion.

The Germans who composed the crew which guided the giant airship on her epoch-making flight left the huge craft reluctantly. They were fond of their craft with the fondness (Continued on Page 51a)

MARRIAGE OF AL SMITH, JR. IS CONFIRMED

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Alfred E. Smith, Jr., son of Governor and Mrs. Smith, and Miss Bertha Gott, of Syracuse, were married today in the rectory of Holy Cross Roman Catholic church in West 42d street.

The religious ceremony, performed by the Rev. Francis J. Duffy, supplemented a civil service performed last Tuesday in the marriage license bureau in the Bronx borough hall by Deputy City Clerk McCabe. Today's ceremony was a result of a telephone request by the governor, who is campaigning.

Gov. Smith is said to have assured his son that he would welcome the young man's bride.

Young Smith smilingly declared after today's ceremony that it had been a case of love at first sight with him. The bride avowed that this, too, was true with her.

The newly-weds said they would leave this afternoon for Albany and that they probably would spend the week-end at the executive mansion.

Governor Confirms Report
BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Governor Alfred E. Smith today confirmed reports that his son, Alfred, Jr., had married Miss Bertha M. Gott, of Syracuse, last Tuesday.

"He's married, all right," the governor said, when asked to comment on the report. "I was up till 2:30 this morning finding out about it. I don't know Miss Gott. Al met her at the Syracuse State Fair a month ago."

"I don't know where the ceremony took place, but they eloped in good old wild west fashion. Father Duffy of Holy Cross Church, on West 42nd street, New York, officiated at a service this morning. Father Duffy was chaplain of the 89th. Al was a captain in that regiment."

The governor's son is 24 years old. He is employed by a New York law firm, but attends night sessions at Fordham Law School, in New York.

Governor Smith said he thought he would take on law enforcement at Elmira tonight. "They have a reformatory over there, you know," he added.

LOWELL'S COMMUNITY CHEST CAMPAIGN

Monday, November 10, has been named as the date for the official opening of Lowell's community chest campaign. Announcement to that effect was made by Secretary-Manager George F. Wells of Lowell chamber of commerce, this noon.

The decision to defer the start of the campaign until next month, was reached yesterday afternoon, at a special conference held in chamber headquarters and attended by Mr. J. A. Wiles of the American City Bureau, Boston. It was felt that better results would be obtained if preparations were not made too hastily, and it was unanimously agreed that November 10 would be the proper time for the city-wide canvass to begin.

Mr. Wiles will have direct supervision of the Lowell organization of the proposed community chest, and in his campaign will have the aid of an experienced assistant familiar with promotion work in American cities similar to Lowell. It is predicted that the canvass of the city will take approximately five weeks' time.

Chamber of commerce officials and other leading citizens, who believe in the community chest plan thoroughly and expect it to solve many problems involved in the extension of charities to needy and deserving inhabitants of the city, are enthusiastically backing the efforts of the promoters of the November campaign. All expect success will follow their efforts in behalf of the proposed community project for the future welfare of Lowell.

The names of fifteen Lowell institutions interested in the community chest campaign are enrolled on the list of organizations faithfully backing the November effort in behalf of "organized charity."

DAVIS SPECIAL. Enroute to Chicago, Oct. 16.—John W. Davis, democratic candidate for president, went out of western Illinois today headed again for Chicago. He is scheduled to arrive there about 3 o'clock this afternoon and begin tonight at the Auditorium, a series of addresses extending until Friday evening, when he expects to depart for East St. Louis, Ill., and Missouri.

Mr. Davis declined to supplement his statement made public in Quincy, regarding the charges he made against former Attorney-General Daugherty and George B. Lockwood, secretary of the Republican National Committee, in connection with the indictment of Senator Burton K. Wheeler.

The incident was regarded by him as closed, and he said he had nothing to retract, nor add to his previous announcements on the subject.

WAS CHARGED WITH POSSESSION OF INDECENT LITERATURE

Case Against Magazine and Newspaper Distributor Went to Trial Today—Judge Enright Takes Case Under Advisement and Will Read Objectionable Stories

Max L. Katze, local independent magazine and newspaper distributor, went to trial in district court before Judge Enright today on the charge of the possession of indecent literature, as represented in certain copies of a publication known as "Snappy Stories."

After more than an hour of trial the court took the case under advisement, for disposition on October 25. In the meantime the court will read certain stories in the magazine to determine their character.

The complaint against Mr. Katze was brought by the New England Watch and Ward society, which was represented in court by Atty. John W. Morris of Boston. Witnesses for the prosecution were Lewis Chappell, Chester G. Williams and W. Y. Taylor, all of Boston, agents of the Watch and Ward society, and Sergt. Michael Winn of the Lowell police. Mr. Katze was the only witness for the defense. Atty. D. J. Donahue represented him.

Testifying in his own behalf Mr. Katze said he never had read a copy of "Snappy Stories" and never knew the magazine "carried" indecent or obscene stories.

Lewis Chappell testified that he went to the Katze establishment in French street with Sergt. Winn on Sept. 13 and there found six copies of the magazine in question. He said Mr. Katze told him he did not have any copies, but that he found some in a locker. Later, Mr. Katze, on the witness stand, denied he ever told the agent he did not have any copies of the publication, saying instead that "he did not think he had any, but that it was too dark in the locker to readily see what was stored there."

Mr. Chappell admitted that he used a flash light to find the magazines.

Agent Chappell also testified that earlier in the day on Sept. 13, he purchased a copy of the magazine from a young woman in the Katze office. Mr. Katze testified that the young woman was not authorized to make the sale and that he conducted only a wholesale business.

It was brought out that the six copies of the magazine found in the store were not there for the purpose of sale or distribution, inasmuch as the entire distribution of that issue had been completed. Mr. Katze suggested to Agent Chappell that he collect all magazines that had been distributed and Sergt. Winn testified that on the following morning about 150 copies had been picked up and left at police headquarters.

Lewis Chappell testified that he went

Opening of C. E. Convention

Christian workers, supporting the banners of many good works in the territory where they live, started promptly at 4:30 o'clock in Liberty Hall, Memorial auditorium, with a preparatory prayer service. About 650 local delegates were present, seated en masse in the auditorium, next to the platform. The floor and galleries were filled with Christian Endeavorers long before the hour scheduled for the opening ceremonies.

Arrangements were made to house many out-of-town delegates in private homes as well as accredited rooming houses and hotels. It was expected that every delegate desiring to remain in Lowell tonight, Friday, and Saturday nights, will be accommodated. Many local Christian Endeavorers are entertaining convention delegates and visitors, and gladly making the stay of the enthusiastic brothers and sisters from afar as comfortable as possible, with genuine hospitality in private homes.

The general public is invited to attend the convention evening sessions tonight and tomorrow night in the auditorium, and also the Sunday afternoon final meeting.

singers, forming a choir of several hundred voices.

EX-PREMIER SQUIRES ORDERED DISCHARGED

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Oct. 15.—The Newfoundland supreme court today ordered that Sir Richard Squires, former premier of the colony, be discharged from bail, granting the petition presented by counsel for the former premier after a grand jury had found no bill in his case. Sir Richard had been charged with larceny from the public treasury as the result of an investigation of Newfoundland government affairs made early this year by a royal commission.

The court in rendering its decision remarked that the rejection of any indictment by a grand jury substantially releases the accused. It added, however, that the power of the crown to present a new indictment to the next grand jury was not affected by today's ruling.

DR. FAUNCE UPHOLDS REV. HARRY E. FOSDICK

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 16.—Dr. William H. P. Faunce, president of Brown's university, today upheld the Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick, until his recent resignation associate pastor of the First Presbyterian church of New York city, in his refusal to sign the doctrine of the Presbyterian church for the sake of any pulpit, or subscribe to all the phrases in a creed 300 years old. Dr. Faunce said: "If any particular denomination does not wish to hear his voice, that denomination is the loser and not Dr. Fosdick. Some day American churches will learn to put prayer and devotion to the Master above the pronunciation of Shibboleths."

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our darling, Dorothy Mary, who died Oct. 16, 1922.

Her face it was the fairest,
Her smile it was the sweetest,
Her prattle and her merry laugh
Would cheer us all the day.
Our darling now is sleeping,
She left us weary, weeping,
We miss her in the evening
And the morning, day by day.

MR. AND MRS. ALDEN PEARSON,
MR. JOHN CASHMAN and Family.

Two additional assistant directors, making three in all, have been appointed to aid Director Kirby, and the work of the bureau has been divided into three groups, each to be under the supervision of an assistant director.

The two new assistant directors are John J. Devlin and Clark H. Long, both of whom are acquainted with bureau problems. The third is Paul E. Tynman, who was appointed last February.

CARPENTERS' PROTEST

Vote of Organized Labor
Can't Be Delivered to Any Candidate.

The following communication from Secretary Handley of the Carpenters' Union, Local No. 49, is of general interest as showing the independence of organized labor in the coming election and the utility of any attempt to deliver the labor vote, so called, to any candidate or any party as has been attempted in some quarters and widely resented, not only in Lowell but all over the United States.

Editor, Lowell Sun:
Lowell, Mass., October 15, 1924.

Dear Sir:
As Secretary of the Carpenters' Local Union No. 49, I have been instructed to write to the local press protesting on behalf of the members against the false, unauthorized and unwarranted statement of an official against the Trades and Labor Council, at a political rally recently held at city hall, to the effect that organized labor in this campaign would vote for La Follette. That official spoke as if he had authority to deliver the votes of organized labor to La Follette, and Wheeler, Local Union No. 49, of which I am secretary, wishes to enter a solemn protest against this utterance and to say that neither the official in question nor any other, regardless of his prominence in the Trades and Labor Council, or even in the national board of the American Federation of Labor, has any right to say how organized labor will vote in the coming election.

No, Mr. Editor, the members of organized labor are not men whose suffrages cannot be officially controlled much less delivered to any candidate, any party, or any interest. In the sacred precincts of the polling booth, every member of organized labor will vote as he pleases and as his conscience dictates for the best interests of his craft, his city, state and nation. God forbid that it should ever come to pass that any members of organized labor should have to accept the dictation of any official high or low on political issues or the choice of candidates for important public offices. If such a condition prevailed, our liberties would soon be wiped out and our free institutions would be supplanted by a despotism more in keeping with an absolute monarchy than a free government in which every citizen is the proud participant in the sovereignty of the people.

In conclusion, I know of no labor official who in violation of his membership in a labor union, can control any vote but his own, and the Carpenters' union at a meeting held October 7th by a unanimous vote instructed me to make this clear to the public through the newspapers.

Thanking you for your courtesy in publishing this communication.

Sincerely yours,
W. H. HANDLEY, Rec. Sec.

MEETING AT THE VARNUM SCHOOL

A meeting of parents and teachers of the Varnum school was held last evening in the school hall and the problems and advantages of the junior high school, a branch of which was recently established at the Varnum school, were discussed. Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, principal of the school, feels that the new conditions and requirements involved in the junior high department should be understood by the parents and for this purpose several speakers were present last evening and explained the work of the department at length.

Miss Mary Tobin and James F. Conway, of the Lowell High school, addressed the large gathering of parents and told of the difficulties met in the work of teaching, and offered helpful suggestions both to teachers and parents.

An enjoyable musical program was given during the evening and added much to the program which, although not planned before, was most interesting and educational. The following entertained with selections: Elmer Hill, Helen Tacey, piano; Felix Krugachytschick, violin accompanied by Wallace Gray, Marguerite Barbara, piano; Lionel Barbara, cornet; Sylvester Barbara, saxophone.

COOLIDGE PLAYS CHILD LABOR AMENDMENT

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—Some of the most active women advocates of the proposed child-labor amendment to the federal constitution "built up a list of up to 100 women here with up to 100 women in control," said Louis A. Coolidge, discussing that amendment last evening at the Boston Root and Shoe club's first dinner of the season, at Hotel Vendome.

Declaring that "the amendment threatens the very foundations of republican government," Mr. Coolidge urged every one of his hearers to vote against it. He denied that those opposed by greed, or that they would exploit child labor saying their only motive is "the preservation of the constitutional liberties of minorities against clamorous majorities."

He declared the correctness of the title, "Children's Amendment," used in literature issued in favor of it. He declared it applies to every boy and girl up to the age of 18. He asked how many present "the state of New York, and so you," entitled to an accounting," he said in his address last night. "Let's stop and look over the records."

Putting aside his notes, the governor then answered republican allegations that during his administration appropriations had increased $12,000,000.

The actual increase, he said, was $23,234,663.34, and he gave a detailed list of the items, many of which, he said, represented the negligence of the last republican administration.

Weather reports from the north last night indicated that Rear-Admiral W. Moffett, chief of the naval bureau of aeronautics, and Lieutenant Commander Zachary Lansdowne, the Shenandoah's commanding officer, that the weather along the dirigible's proposed route was clearing. Lieutenant Commander Lansdowne said, however, that low hanging early morning clouds might cause some delay in getting the dirigible's huge gas bags warmed up for the start.

SHENANDOAH READY TO RESUME FLIGHT

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Oct. 15.—(By the Associated Press).—After an enforced stay of five days at the North Island aviation field because of inclement weather in the north Pacific, the mammoth naval dirigible Shenandoah was ready to cast off from her mooring mast today for the flight to Camp Lewis, at Seattle, Washn.

SOCIALIST MINISTER BARS NATIONAL ANTHEM

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 16.—Elimination of the national anthem, which is customarily played when the king is present, was ordered by the socialist woman minister of the arts at a gala jubilee performance last evening in the Royal theatre.

Most of the socialist ministers objected to their colleagues' order, and the public showed its resentment by rising and singing all the verses of the anthem, concluding with loud cheers for the king.

TREMBLED WITH NERVOUSNESS

Mrs. Viney Did Not Know a Good Night's Rest Until She Took This Treatment

The first thing to do when threatened with nervous trouble is to stop the cause of it, if possible, whether it is irregular living, worry or whatever it may be. Then the nerves must be given special nourishment, and the blood must be kept pure and rich. This is the mission of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and this is why the pills have been used with such great success in nervous trouble that did not yield to ordinary methods of treatment.

Mrs. Thomas Viney, of No. 28 Beattie street, Portland, Me., was in an extremely nervous condition for two years. "At times," she says, "I would tremble all over and could not hold anything steady in my hands. After eating I had a nervous trembling in my stomach. I had sour stomach and nausea. I was dizzy a great deal and did not know what a good night's rest was. My circulation was so poor that I was cold on the coldest days."

"After trying other medicine without benefit I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and before I had taken them a week I was better. The trembling sensations went away. The improvement continued and I had no more indigestion and heartburn. I can eat a good meal now without distress afterward. My circulation is good and I no longer have dizzy spells. I cannot say too much for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

The free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System," will interest you. Write for it today to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, sixty cents a box.—Adv.

REPUBLICAN RALLIES HERE LAST NIGHT

Republican campaigners from Boston spoke at downtown points in Lowell last night and were heard by fair sized crowds. The speakers were C. A. Starratt and L. R. Maggi and they urged the election of the national and state G.O.P. tickets. Mr. Starratt spoke particularly of Coolidge and Dawes, Fuller and Congressman Rogers. The campaigners came in automobiles equipped with Magnavox horns and also carried victrolas for the dissemination of sweet music. Campaign pins carrying likenesses of Coolidge, Dawes and Fuller were distributed.

Republican workers of the Fifth congressional district held a rally and dinner last night at Lake Nagog Inn, with chairman of city and town committees in attendance. Practically every town in the district was represented and Lowell sent a delegation of 25 men and women. Reports on registration were received and there were a number of after-dinner addresses, including one by Congressman Rogers.

STRATFORD DANCE AT COLONIAL HALL

The first of the Stratford Friday nighters of this season will be held on next Friday night at Colonial hall in Palmer street. This organization will be remembered as having conducted the weekly parties at the Highland club last season. However, for the convenience of their patrons, they have decided that a more centrally located hall was desirable and naturally Colonial hall was the first and best choice.

The hall in itself is beautiful and, together with its wonderful dance floor and perfect acoustics, goes to make the success of Stratford parties a certainty.

Their opening party was held on Columbus night and, judging from the large but select gathering of young people present, the Stratford dances are what the dancing people have been waiting for.

John Broderick's orchestra will furnish the dance music and Colonial hall is the place and Friday night is the time of the Stratford parties.

Any cards reading that a Stratford dance will be held in the Highland club on Friday night are obviously incorrect. All Stratford parties will be held in Colonial hall this season.

DIED IN CALIFORNIA

North Billerica citizens were saddened yesterday to learn that a former well known and popular resident, Ernest Skott, had died in Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Skott was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Skott, and for many years was employed as a spinner at Talbot mill. He was employed in a national bank in California. Deceased is survived by his wife, Clara Paula Skott; one daughter, a brother, John W. of North Billerica, and one sister, Mrs. Harry Ormrod of Vancouver.

In the last census 1,758,302 widowers were reported in the United States.

Pictures of New Giant of the Air, Now at Home in U. S. Naval Airdrome

High above Times Square, "the cross-roads of the world," the ZR-3 proudly floated, looking like a great silver whale as it gently glided up out of the fog and thrilled the hundreds of thousands of New Yorkers who stopped in their mad rush to work to acclaim the notable achievement of the great airship and its crew.

As the ZR-3 nestled down to earth at Lakehurst, Bob Dorman, NEA Service photographer in an airplane, piloted by Jim Ray, one of the country's best known aviators, circled above the field. This remarkable air view resulted.

of mariners for the vessel that has brought them safely to port.

Dr. Hugo Eckener, Zeppelin president, who commanded the ZR-3 on its trans-Atlantic voyage, was so enthusiastic about the accomplishment of his craft that he expressed the belief that a regular line of airships carrying freight and passengers between Germany and the United States might be established soon.

He said the trip could be made in less than 51 hours and 17 minutes, the time required by the ZR-3 to make the voyage. Dr. Eckener explained that fog and adverse winds had delayed him slightly and added that the time between shore was really less than the flying time because the ship was at a point over the Massachusetts coast where it could have landed safely 15 hours after it left Friedrichshafen. The giant airship was declared fit for immediate flight today after an inspection which disclosed everything in perfect order.

FAIRBURN BUILDING

The ZR-3 photographed by Arthur Galaid in an NEA Service airplane, piloted by Casey Jones, as the great ship of the air came over the sea and crossed Long Beach, Long Island. Soon after this picture was taken, the ZR-3 plunged into a giant bank of fog that enveloped New York City.

Here is close-up of the main cabin of the ZR-3 as it came to earth at Lakehurst after its flight from Friedrichshafen. Members of the German crew and American officers who made the trip are seen looking out the windows of the cabin, happy and exulting in the successful end of their transatlantic flight. The arrow indicates Captain Lehman, who was chief of operations for the American staff aboard the airship.

so far sheltered under her protecting bulk—they were red-eyed and weary. They had traversed 5066 miles under hazardous circumstances, and they had done it in a single continuous flight of 51 hours and 17 minutes.

This was the official record, as computed by Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the dirigible and president of the Zeppelin interests, and by Commander J. H. Kien, Jr., of Lakehurst field, who made the transatlantic flight.

The ship's log recorded that she left Friedrichshafen, Germany, at 6:35 a. m. on Sunday, Oct. 12, the time being one hour east of Greenwich. She touched earth here at 9:52 a. m. eastern standard time, yesterday.

Thus the average speed of the ZR-3 for the whole distance was approximately 62.35 miles per hour. The approximate average of the British R-34 during her westward flight of 3200 miles across the Atlantic in 48 hours, made in 1919, was 20.83 miles per hour.

As a further indication of the strides lighter-than-air aeronautics have taken during those five years, the fuel tanks of the ZR-3 were one-quarter full when she landed. They held 714 tons—enough, according to Lieutenant Commander S. H. Krauss, to have carried her 1500 knots farther, or a good part of the distance to the Pacific coast.

When the R-34 reached her destination at Mineola, Long Island, from East Fortune, Scotland, her fuel tanks held barely a half hour's supply.

Wave to Save Zeppelin Works

BERLIN, Oct. 16.—(By the Associated Press.)—The successful completion of the flight to America of the ZR-3 has increased the agitation in Germany for revision of the treaty arrangements regarding the dismantling of the Zeppelin workshops and hangars at Friedrichshafen.

A committee of the German trade and industry congress has adopted a resolution expressing hope that the works may not be destroyed, but will be contributed to the peaceful building of peoples and to the common task of bringing about a revival of European and universal prosperity.

MINOR CASES IN THE DISTRICT COURT

Minor cases in district court today were disposed of as follows: Frank M. Donohoe, drunk, three months in the house of correction.

John Powell, drunk, placed on file.

Lloyd McCullough, obstructing the sidewalk, placed on file.

Henry Arviala, drunk, given two months to make restitution of $10 for property damage. The cases of Fred Marcotti, charged with operating a motorcycle without a license, and William F. Herbert, charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, were continued.

James Manoussos and Peter Veres, charged with threatening and robbery of a small sum of money, were discharged because of lack of prosecution.

Louis S. Cote appeared in court to answer to the charge of larceny of 13 pounds of meat valued at 25 cents, found from the C. F. Willis market. The case was continued to Oct. 23.

DELINQUENT HUSBAND GETS JAIL SENTENCE

The wife of Frank C. Welch appeared in district court today and told Judge Enright that her husband is an habitual drunkard and that he abuses her and does not properly support the family.

"I have two sick children at home," the woman said, "and although they need a doctor, my husband will not give me money enough to get one."

The complaint against Welch was dropped, but on suggestion of the court a non-support complaint was made out and on a plea of guilty the court sentenced him to four months in the house of correction.

DAWES TO START STRENUOUS TOUR

During the eastern trip he will speak in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Delaware, New Jersey and New York, opening the eastern campaign with an address in Philadelphia Tuesday evening, Oct. 21, and ending with a night meeting at Rochester, N. Y., Monday, Oct. 27, returning to Chicago the following day.

STUDY FRANCO-RUSSIAN AFFAIRS

PARIS, Oct. 16.—(By the Associated Press.)—The final meeting of the French commission, which has been studying Franco-Russian affairs and which yesterday announced its decision to recommend de jure recognition of the soviet government, will be held this afternoon and this evening and its report will be presented to Premier Herriot. The recognition is considered certain, will be accorded at the cabinet meeting tomorrow.

MOVE TO HAVE RATES PETITION DROPPED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The Baltimore Association of Commerce today asked the inter-state commerce commission to dismiss the petition of the port of New York authority and New England ports asking for a joint hearing before the commission and the shipping board on equalization of rail and ocean rates between northern and southern Atlantic ports. The association contended that the board and the commission have no authority to act together.

FINED $100 FOR ILLEGAL KEEPING

Rosario Pleau pleaded guilty in district court today to the illegal keeping of liquor and as it was a first offense, was ordered to pay a fine of $100.

Pleau was arrested by raiding officers of the local liquor squad last night in a lodging house in Cabot street. One case of excellent whiskey was seized in the raid, as well as two cases of French brandy. The officers involved in the raid were Sergt. Winn and Patrolmen Cooney, Moore, Leakey and W. F. Liston.

SHOE PRICE SCALES

HAVERHILL, Oct. 16.—The wood heel makers' local No. 11, of the Shoe Workers' Protective union, representing 1500 operatives, at a mass meeting last night drew up their price scales for the year 1925. The new price lists are almost identical to those now operative. A few minor increases are asked in the lower paid operations. The new prices will be presented to the wood heel manufacturers, numbering about 20, within a few days, although the prices will not become operative until Jan. 1.

SHOTS ACROSS BOW HALT RUM RUNNERS

GLOUCESTER, Oct. 16.—The speed boat Delta of Boston, with 2400 gallons of alcohol aboard, was captured by the Old Harbor coast guard crew last night after several shots were fired across her bow. John McCarthy, skipper, and Frank Cusumano, John Guilgine and John Russo, all of Boston, were arrested.

THE STRAND

"Broken Barriers," the Reginald Barker production, which opens a three days' engagement at The Strand today, is a screen version of Meredith Nicholson's novel, and the cast contains 10 real stars of the screen. Fans will find a continual parade of their favorites across the shadow stage. James Kirkwood appears as Ward Trinton, estranged from his wife (Winifred Bryson), who will not allow him a divorce to marry the girl he loves (Norma Shearer). The story hinges on the efforts of this pair to smash the barriers of convention that stands in the way of their happiness, and shows the effect on a wide number of people of their efforts to change the old morals for new. Mac Rurch appears as a jaded, dissipated man with a lively man-about-town, played by Adolphe Menjou, who was recently so successful in Chaplin's "Woman of Paris." Robert Fraser, remembered as the hero in Barker's "Woman Who Gave," and who played opposite Pola Negri in "Men," is the third member of this secondary triangle in the picture. George Fawcett appears as the father of the heroine, whose sister in the picture is played by Ruth St. Denis. There is another angle of the story that demands "action," dealing with it does with the younger generation. Robert Agnew and Vera Reynolds appear as two jazz-crazed young people, recklessly skidding down the primrose path with twice the pace and zest of their elders.

"The Battling Pool" is the story of a small town chap who is a born fighter but always a gentleman, never the bragging, noisy, blustering type but just a natural boxer for the love of the sport. But his love was kept down by his father, a minister of a village church. When a twist of fate forced him into the fight game to save the girl he loves from permanent invalidity, the girl's parents and the boy's father turn their backs upon him, and in the end he wins out. The elements of mystery and suspense, plus action, make the story one of genuine enjoyment. Eva Novak and William Fairbanks are co-starred, and assisting them are several favorites.

A comedy and Weekly help make the bill decidedly good.

It's a Good World, Says Girl Who Was Called a Hopeless Cripple

ELISABETH HEINEMANN AT HER OFFICE

BY GEORGE BRITT

N. E. A. Service Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—"I guess dancing is about the only thing in the way of business or pleasure that I don't go in for," says Elisabeth Heinemann. Her eyes are dancing as she says it and her radiant personality tells you that the heart within her is skipping a merry hornpipe.

There's no reason for being downhearted, except that she's hopelessly crippled.

The impression Elisabeth Heinemann gives—next to that of her cheerfulness—is of being strictly business. She is proprietor of her own little shop for typewriting, mimeographing and translating. She opened up independently in August, and now she is compelled by the volume of business to employ an assistant.

"Yes, I could have been taken care of without working," she said. "I have brothers and uncles. But I could never hear that. Can you imagine anything more terrible? This work gives me an interest to live for, and gives me a chance to live a little. This is my own office, and I live alone, in my own little apartment. Instead of being cared for by my friends, I can entertain them and act as hostess for parties of my own."

"The hard thing about being crippled is that people pity you, or want to favor you on that account. That's what I don't like. I want to be treated as a normal person."

cause I can do it as efficiently and give just as good service as my competitors, and maybe a little better."

Miss Heinemann is 25. At first glance one would not call her more than "nice looking." But this visitor challenges anyone to talk to her ten minutes without finding in her eyes, in the lines of her face, in her smile and manner, flashes of true beauty.

As a little girl she was taken to Germany by her mother to seek a cure from famous doctors. In 1917 she found herself back in the United States, as much a cripple as ever, with both father and mother dead and the family money all gone.

She taught herself typing and began a succession of jobs. The normal salary was cut because she was a cripple. Then she attained to one or two "positions." She had to be dependent upon an employer for work, however, and such obstacles as entrance steps barred her from some desirable buildings. So she ventured out "on her own."

Every day she propels herself along thirty-second street to her office, and often it is after night before she returns. A startled, melancholy woman, seeing her cheerful face, once stopped and asked, "Do you ride in that chair for pleasure? You look so comfortable."

"Everybody is wonderful to me," says Miss Heinemann, "and it's a good world."

ARMOUR-MORRIS PACKER MERGER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Concluding hearings in the Armour-Morris packer merger proceedings have been set for Oct. 21 at Chicago.

After three days' hearings here before Chester Morrill, officer in charge of the packers and stock yards administration, it was found the linking of evidence could not be concluded at this time.

The proceedings are in connection with the complaint lodged a year ago last February by Secretary Wallace after Armour & Co. announced their plans to acquire the plants and business of Morris & Co.

NEXT WEEK AT THE STRAND

"The Sea Hawk," the special photograph scheduled for appearance at The Strand all next week, with Milton Silla in his greatest characterization, has one of the most powerful romances screened in some seasons—a love story that does not move along the usual lines, but carries you into the strongest conflict between the lovers—resulting in kidnapping and for what appears for a period of the action to be the strongest animosity between them. It is a love story that will thrill and stir the blood. "The Sea Hawk" is easily recognized as one of the truly great picture productions of the year. Silla has the assistance of a most capable cast.

ENDS LIFE AFTER SECOND ATTEMPT TO KILL WIFE

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—Three days after he was foiled in an attempt to kill his wife, from whom he was separated, Charles Morrill, 32, today shot and wounded her and killed himself. He shot his wife at her boarding house and then ran to his own home, three squares away and sent a bullet into his head. He died in a hospital. The woman will recover, doctors said.

PROBE OF INTERNAL REVENUE BUREAU

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The inquiry of the senate committee investigating the internal revenue bureau, it is stated, has developed her into an investigation of the operation of the internal revenue law than into violations of the law. Information is being obtained at the treasury department by special investigators for the committee which plans to resume hearings shortly after the elections.

If the data being gathered is considered to be sufficiently conclusive, amendments to the internal revenue law will be offered at the December session of congress.

BRITISH PART OF LOAN 200 OF STRIKING STUDENTS STILL OUT COVERED TEN TIMES

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The remarkable success achieved in floating the British portion of the German loan yesterday, forms the chief topic this morning for all the financial editors. Who agree that the 12,000,000 pounds sterling was probably subscribed five times over. Some report that it was commonly estimated in the money market yesterday that the British slice had been covered ten times.

This eagerness to subscribe is regarded as especially noteworthy, in view of the existence of considerable sentimental aversion to lending money to Germany, and the fact that this had no adverse effect is attributed in some quarters to profound faith in the Dawes plan as a means of rescuing Europe from her troubles.

To Make Rich Red Blood

Revitalize your worn-out exhausted nerves and increase your strength and endurance—take Organic Iron; not metallic iron which people usually take, but pure organic iron—Nuxated Iron, which is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. One dose of Nuxated Iron is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating one-half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen apples. It is like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of beef. Nuxated Iron is partially predigested and ready for almost immediate absorption and assimilation by the blood, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron filings.

Millions of people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the stomach nor disturb the bowels. A few doses will often commence to enrich your blood. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain satisfactory results.

Beware of substitutes. Always insist on having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.—Adv.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easy and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations by using the well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membrane, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membrane.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ANDERSON, S. C., Oct. 16.—Only two hundred of the 500 or more cadets of the Clemson College, who walked out as a protest against the suspension of R. P. (Dutch) Holohan, president of the senior class and certain conditions in the college mess hall, were missing from the barracks this morning, according to information received here from the school.

Many of the striking cadets returned and college officials said they expected most, if not all, to be back in a day or two. Class work was resumed as usual today, with about 750 students attending chapel out of an enrollment of approximately 1,000.

The situation at the school was described as quiet, with students and officials marking time pending consideration of the affair at a meeting of the board of trustees Monday night.

Although it was stated that the students plan to press their demands for more and better food, for the engagement of a matron for the mess hall, and for reinstatement of all students who left the college, it was said they had withdrawn their request for the reinstatement of Holohan who was suspended for one year on a charge of drinking whiskey.

FOREIGN-BORN CITIZEN AT WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—A reception and buffet luncheon for a delegation of the foreign-born citizens' association was the principal political item on President Coolidge's engagement list today. This followed a series of conferences with various callers for discussion of governmental business and campaign developments.

Brief addresses to the foreign-born citizens delegation, and to representatives of the Coolidge-Dawes theatrical league, who will be received by the President tomorrow, are the only speeches on his program until next Thursday at a divisional meeting here of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

BODY OF WOMAN IS FOUND IN RIVER

BRIDGEWATER, Oct. 16.—After an all-night search by night shift employees at the Stanley Iron Works, friends and neighbors, the body of Mrs. Anna Cummings, aged 63, of High street, was found floating in Town river at 2:30 this morning.

The body was found by James Higgins, after the fire department and been called to assist in the search.

Mrs. Cummings, who has suffered from nervous disorders, wandered away from her home early in the evening.

Her absence was discovered about 9:30 by her daughter who sounded the alarm.

KIDNAPED AND FORCED TO MARRY GIRL

GREENWOOD, S. C., Oct. 16.—A story of having been kidnaped from one of the principal business streets of this city, taken into the country and forced against his will to marry a young woman, was told to police here today by G. F. Edge, head of an investment company.

According to Edge's narrative, five men participated in the kidnaping these being joined later by 100 hooded men. One of the latter, he said, performed the marriage ceremony, and then gave him a lecture. Edge announced he would not consider the marriage binding.

LONDON MAYOR A PROMINENT CATHOLIC

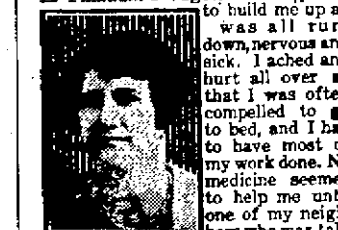

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The new lord mayor of London, Sir Alfred Bower, is a prominent member of the Catholic church, as also are F. J. Barthorpe and H. G. Downer, the two sheriffs next in authority. There have been several Catholic lord mayors, but this is said to be the first administration in which all three of the ruling dignitaries are of the Catholic faith.

F. J. Campbell of Thurston county, Washington, announced that he has developed a stinging bee.

SICK WOMAN MADE HAPPY

Entirely Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mart, Texas.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to build me up as was all run-down, nervous and sick. I ached and hurt all over so that I was often compelled to go to bed, and I had to have most of my work done. No medicine seemed to help me until one of my neighbors who was taking the Vegetable Compound insisted on me trying a bottle of it. The medicine helped me from the first, and the best of all is that I can even sew again without that awful, nervous feeling I was used to having. And I used to take crying spells, with such a blue feeling that I cannot explain. Now all this has left me. I feel so cheerful, and I have gained in weight, sleep well and eat hearty. Oh! I wish I had words to express what this medicine has done for me! I am a housekeeper and do every thing from the sewing to the washing now and it doesn't hurt me. You may use my letter in any way you wish. I will be glad to help any suffering woman to the road of health and happiness."

LA FOLLETTE CARRIES FIGHT TO MINNESOTA

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 16. (By the Associated Press.)—Senator Robert M. La Follette left here early today to carry his fight for the presidency into Minnesota, which has two farmers-labor senators. He speaks tonight in Minneapolis and then will swing into South Dakota for a campaign speech tomorrow night in Sioux Falls.

It appeared probable today that in both of those addresses the independent candidate for president would discuss the problems of the farmer. That was his subject here last night before an audience which filled the Coliseum, the largest auditorium in Des Moines. Mr. La Follette renewed his charge that the federal reserve board "in conspiracy with New York and Chicago bankers" put into effect a deflation policy four years ago, which proved ruinous to American agriculture. The board, he declared, "has worked hand in glove to exploit the farmer and the producer."

If elected, the Wisconsin senator said he would make banking credit "the servant of the people rather than the master," by providing for the organization of co-operative banks and for the functioning of the federal reserve board as it was intended to function.

During his speech, Senator La Follette outscored Senator Brookhart of this state, who is seeking re-election as a republican, although outspoken in his criticism of both President Coolidge and his running mate, Charles G. Dawes.

SELECT JURY FOR TRIAL OF "FLAPPER BANDIT"

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—The jury for the trial of Violet Dickerson, charged with first degree murder in the killing of Louis Hirsch, during a hold-up in his store, was completed last night after the examination of 150 veniremen.

The girl defendant again was permitted to bring her baby, born in prison, to City Hall, while she faced the court. At the conclusion of the long session, she and the child were returned to prison. Her father, Milton O. Dickerson, of Hallsbury, Md., and her step-sister, Mrs. Martha Frey, who visited her during the day, did not attend the night session of court.

She expressed satisfaction with the jury and declared that she felt confident its members would be "satisfied with the truth of my story that I am innocent of intent to rob or harm Mr. Hirsch."

She is accused jointly with Charles Oeffinger, of shooting Hirsch. Oeffinger was convicted of first degree murder and the commonwealth plans to call the same witnesses who testified against him. It is expected that Miss Dickerson will take the stand in her own behalf.

NOT TO RESTORE FUNDS TO-PONZI'S TRUSTEES

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—Those who recovered investments in the quick-rich scheme of Charles Ponzi prior to August 2, 1920, when he was declared insolvent, may keep their money. Judges Morton, Brewster and Anderson joined in a decision which frees from liability to restore such funds to Ponzi's trustees thousands of persons who got back their investments, either with or without profits. The trustees had sued to recover this money to be applied in settling claims, but the judges directed the trustees to dismiss all such suits, where special circumstances were involved.

Japan Acts on U. S. Protest

Mukden has agreed to issue a warning to all Japanese papers here to suppress false reports. Gen. Chang told Capt. Baldwin that he did not believe the reports, but added that he was not in a position to regulate the Japanese press, pointing out that his troops were being moved south over the Japanese controlled south Manchurian railway.

The American officer called General Chang's attention to reports in Japanese papers here branding "Captain Baldwin" as a spy in employ of the Peking government. He pointed out to General Chang that, although he was attached to the American legation at Peking, he had never met the general. He said, however, met the central military head of the government.

Emphasizing his protest, Captain Baldwin said that every move he has made in Mukden has been shadowed by Chinese detectives in the Chang Tao-Lin forces. He cited stories in the Japanese press here purporting to be from Tokyo and Peking in which it was stated that American soldiers were fighting in the Central government ranks and that tanks were being operated by Americans in the Peking field forces.

Captain Baldwin said America was absolutely neutral and told General Chang that the propaganda circulated by the Japanese press was seriously affecting American interests in Manchuria because of the gullibility of the Chinese public.

TO PLAY HERE NOV. 2

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Will Give Concert in Auditorium Without Soloist

Because Serge Koussevitzky, Russian conductor of the Boston Symphony orchestra, wants to make his first extra-Boston appearance, a notable event, the orchestra will appear in Lowell on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 2, without a soloist.

Raymond Havens, pianist, had already been announced as soloist for the concert, but when Librarian Rogers visited the Auditorium and took stage measurements he reported to Manager Brennan of the Symphony that the stage would have to be built out if Mr. Havens were to play the Tchaikowsky concerto.

A conference followed between Manager Brennan of the orchestra and John Donovan of the Star series. It developed that both thought that it would be better to forego a soloist for the occasion. So that there will be no Tchaikowsky concerto on the program.

It may seem surprising to learn that the Auditorium stage isn't big enough to give the orchestra enough room to add a grand piano for a concert program, but one should bear in mind that to get the best results from the various choirs in the orchestra they cannot be crowded together. The choice was to select a program that would not call for the entire strength of the orchestra but this did not seem desirable.

The Lowell concert will be the first outside Boston where Mr. Koussevitzky will appear. The world do move. New York has to wait until late November for its chance to pass on the new conductor whose Boston success in his last week's premier was so emphatic that critics are hailing Mr. Koussevitzky's successor as the heir apparent to Dr. Muck's baton and prestige.

The Lowell program is not completed but Beethoven's Fifth Symphony will probably be played.

EXCELSIOR FIRE

Two separate alarms were sounded at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon for a blazing pile of excelsior in a barn in the rear of 19 Crosby street. Box 226 was sounded first and was followed immediately by box 223. The fire was quickly extinguished and damage was slight.

Better for Toasting

OLD HOME Potato Bread makes dandy toast. It cuts into slices that are just the right size for toasting or for sandwiches. And they're a nice size for every other use, too. The long loaf makes Old Home go a long way, thereby helping you to economize on bread.

There's a delicious flavor to this loaf that you'll surely like. It tastes just like the bread mother used to make. And not only that, but it's full of the same old-fashioned goodness her bread always had. We make it just as she used to, and you'll find we get much the same results.

Betsy Ross Bread

Betsy Ross is an established favorite in this community. Housewives know its quality. They have found that it can be depended upon for daily use. It is always the same, and always good. Buy this loaf of Old Home every day—from your grocer.

INTERESTING LECTURE
AT NORMAL SCHOOL

Frank D. Morse, supervisor of Junior and Senior high schools, Massachusetts state department of education, spoke interestingly before the pupils of the Lowell State Normal school yesterday afternoon on "The Relation of the Department to the Junior and Senior high schools."

Miss Blanche M. Cheney, of the faculty, introduced Mr. Morse as a wise leader, a gentleman and a scholar, stating that her work with him some years ago had been most pleasing and interesting.

Mr. Morse gave a personal narrative of his work as supervisor of the high schools of which there are 253 senior and 130 junior schools. His work is divided into two divisions, first field work, and second, office work. There is no perceptible demarcation in the scope of his work although he stated he preferred the field work to the office routine.

Coming under the division of field work is the making of reports a task which is always difficult and tedious. School surveys which are always beneficial both to the schools visited and the communities in which the institutions are situated also come under the title of field work. Transportation and tuition fees, are major matters along this line of work, as there are always sufficient cases of this kind to keep one man busy all the time.

One of the important factors of the field work is the establishing of school libraries, a matter of general interest to Mr. Morse and in which he takes special delight. At present a list of reference books for the junior and high school pupil is being prepared and will contain the name, the author, publisher and selling price of thousands of volumes which contain information for the student.

The office work, termed more impersonal by the speaker, involves the approving of school organization blanks; tuition rates; school classification; editorial work; correspondence and the granting of interviews, all of which become more or less monotonous to Mr. Morse as it is through his office all these details must pass.

The certification of teachers, always a major matter in office work, entails countless hours of work, as the qualifications of the teacher must be investigated before the certificate is granted. Last year 132 certificates were granted teachers.

An interesting explanation was given by the speaker of the tuition charged. A state law indicates that a non-resident pupil attending a high school must pay a tuition fee, as must wards of the state. The rate charged per pupil is proportional to the yearly expenditure of the school.

Mr. Morse emphasized that fact that Massachusetts has no centralized school system. Massachusetts schools are among the best in the country and the opportunities offered therein give the student a broad and varied field of education.

The speaker read several letters which aided greatly in explaining the various sub-topics in his address, especially the transportation and tuition questions, two of the most misunderstood school problems. He brought his talk to a close citing numerous instances and experiences met in his broad field of work which brings him to the various sections of the state.

HELD WHIST PARTY

A very large and successful whist party was held recently at the home of the Hadassah Head, Miss Ida Fox, 94 Gates street, under the auspices of the Lowell Young Women's Hebrew association, for the benefit of the Hadassah. A small amount was charged for each person, and quite sum was realized. After refreshments were served, the following received prizes: first prize to Miss Atlantic Raymond; consolation prize to Miss Ruby Freeman.

Billy Evans Points Out That Even "Master Minds" Are Not Always Right—Discusses Some of the Mistakes in Recent Baseball Classic

BY BILLY EVANS
Even the master minds make mistakes in baseball.
It is a rather interesting experience to sit in the press box and hear the comments of the scribes. Having the second guess is a decided advantage but I must also admit that I have listened to a lot of very intelligent first guessing in the world series games.
As the unusual situations come up it is only natural that the experts should try to analyze them in advance. In the third game of the series I did a little of it myself.
The stage was set for a Washington rally as the bases filled, only one out and the Giants' pitchers were parading in and out of the box so fast it was hard to keep track of them.
Throughout the game the Giants' pitchers had been very generous with bases on balls, always being in the hole. Lack of control gave Washington the big chance in the ninth.
Miller Had the Opportunity
With the score standing 6 to 4 in New York's favor, a base hit would tie it up for Washington.
It was felt that Miller, a rookie who had only been in parts of four games, should have been the batter through lack of balls always being in the hole. Lack of control gave Washington the big chance in the ninth.

AT ALUMNI FIELD FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Lowell high will go after Boston high school of commerce at Alumni field tomorrow afternoon. Lowell should win, if one were to judge by comparative records, but records don't count much in football these days. The red and gray eleven needn't be too confident in stacking up against the Bostonians. They may provide an unexpected upset.
For this reason, Coach Linton and Pierotti resumed practice sessions yesterday by sending the boys through a drill workout. Particular attention being instructed to hit low and hard, instead of high, as they did in the Manchester game.
Last Monday Lawrence high defeated Commerce, 31 to 6. Lowell will try to better that mark, if possible. With all the regulars in trim, hopes are high.
Faculty Manager James Conway, represents the attitude of the Manchester team in claiming that Lowell used unfair tactics in the holiday encounter. With regard to the allegation that the New Hampshire eleven was not hospitably received, the faculty manager points to the fact that the team was requested to use the locker room between halves, but elected to remain on the field, that was their own business. After the game, the high school gymnasium was thrown open to the visitors.

"KID" SULLIVAN KAYOS BALLERINO

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Stete (Kid) Sullivan is gradually adding value and prestige to his somewhat doubtful junior lightweight division. The new champion successfully defended his title for the second time last night by knocking out Mike Ballerino in the fifth round. Sullivan, outpointed by Ballerino, before he won the crown from Johnny Dundee, has acquired police and confidence with the honor and promises to cut a clear niche for himself in fistie circles by fighting well and often.

LEWIS WINS OVER GEO. KOTSONAROS

EL PASO, Texas, Oct. 15.—Ed (Strangler) Lewis, successfully defended his world's heavyweight wrestling championship by defeating George Kotsonaros, Greek challenger, in straight falls here last night. The first fall was scored in fifty minutes, the second in two minutes. Lewis' headlock won him both falls.

HOPPE ACCEPTS CHALLENGE

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Willie Hoppe will accept the challenge of facing Jake Schaefer, to a special bout this match upon conditions. These are that they play two blocks of 3,200 points each, instead of one of 4,000 as Schaefer proposed, and that the match take place during the last two weeks of November. Hoppe is willing to go to the coast for the test.

London suburbs have suffered from a plague of daddy-long-legs, or crane flies.

CAPTAIN SHOWS HOW

Under the leadership of Captain E. B. Taylor, the Navy team has been indulging in a number of strenuous workouts. The photo shows Taylor demonstrating to one of his stalwarts just how one goes about making a clean tackle. And Mr. Taylor, since you ask us, knows his stuff.

WHO SAID "WEAKER SEX?"

We don't want to be misunderstood when we call your attention to these girls' legs—or limbs; if you prefer. They show the powerful muscles of the finely trained runner—fully as powerful and highly developed as those of a man. Miss Norma Zilk (right) of Lakeview High School is shown winning the intermediate hurdle race at Chicago. Miss Elizabeth Sheffield of Hyde Park High, who finished second, is in the center, and her sister Margaret at the left.

BROWN'S SINISTER KICKER

The presence on the team of Captain Jim Sheldon makes Brown University a fairly formidable contender for football honors. Sheldon has had three years' experience and is fast and a sure tackler. He's red-headed, a fighter and, you will notice attacks the ball with his left dog.

MANTY WANTS TO MEET MURPHY AGAIN

The following self explanatory letter was received from Johnny Muller, manager of Charlie Manty, yesterday:

35 Morgan St.,
New Bedford, Mass.,
October 14th, 1924.
Sporting Editor, Lowell Sun.
Dear Sir: Charlie Manty is now the leading 130 pounder in New England. As good a judge of boxers as the veteran referee, Jack Sheehan, made that announcement publicly in your city two weeks ago when Manty stopped McAdams.
Billy Murphy is evidently on the skids while Manty today is better than Murphy ever was. Although I do not want to pick on a cripple, as it were, I feel that Manty is due another match with Murphy if the Lowell boy will meet him.
Manty has lost three decisions to Murphy. I will not say anything about the decisions but I feel that if Manty knocks Murphy out the state will be clean. Manty is ready to meet Murphy in any spot in New England.
Very truly yours,
JOHN MULLER,
Manager of Charlie Manty.

TEXTILE WILL MEET RHODE ISLAND TEAM

Lowell Textile faces big game with Rhode Island state team at the Textile campus Saturday afternoon. That the visitors are no slouches may be gleaned from the fact that they have participated in several close struggles against heavier teams this season and emerged in a blaze of glory.

In holding Providence to a 6-0 score last Saturday, Coach Ed Cavley's charges demonstrated that they are capable of coming back in the face of disheartening circumstances. After losing to St. Michael's the week previous, the Textile men buckled right down to business again, and showed well against Providence. In fact, it was their heat exhibition to date and one that cast a scare into Rhode Island scouts, who were in the stands.
Three or four new men have been added to the squad and the outlook for future success is exceedingly bright. New plays will be directed at the Rhode outfit Saturday, and a local win is anticipated. The kick-off will be at 2:30 o'clock.

TENNIS MAKES GREAT STRIDES IN FRANCE

PARIS, Oct. 16.—For the first time in the history of lawn tennis, France expects to be able to boast during the coming season of a player ranked among the first five in the world.

Rene LaCoste is not only the unanimous choice of the sporting writers for the position of ranking No. 1 player of France for the year 1924, but the scribes all agree that he should come immediately after William Tilden, Vincent Richards and William Johnston of America, and J. C. Anderson of Australia in the world's tennis ranking.
The French Tennis federation will announce its rankings about Nov. 1, and is expected to place LaCoste first, Jean Borotra second and Henri Cochet third. This will break the triple tie which has existed in France during the present year, Borotra Cochet and LaCoste having been placed even in the 1923 ranking as No. 1 players.
Tilden has made great strides in France since the armistice. Recently, in a tournament organized on the courts of the racing club of France and open to all, 75 youngsters of both sexes entered.

INDIANS TO PLAY LAWRENCE TEAM

The Indians have booked the St. Mary's College of Lawrence for Sunday on the old Fair grounds, now O'Donnell park. The cadets are coming to Lowell with one of the strongest lineups in years. They defeated the Indians last year by a 6 to 0 score, and the Indians are out for revenge and mean to get it. The cadets have in Danahy and Bruin two backs who can hit a line and skirt a goal, and who are towers of strength on the defense. So far this year the cadets have scored 103 points without having their goal line crossed. The Indians have played two games this season, defeating the Strong Kentwood Roberts, 7 to 0, and the Parkvales of Lawrence, 13 to 0.

There will be additional police protection on Sunday to handle the crowd. Bleachers have been erected by the park department, and the playing space has been wired off so as to keep the field clear at times.

The Indians are under the management of James Torrey, a great fighter and a young man thoroughly familiar with the gridiron game. He is booking games with some of the strongest aggregations in the state and is also arranging for contests with all the leading local eleven.

The Indians will hold a practice session at 7 o'clock tonight.

With the husky Mr. Tracey of New York university life is just one guard's job after another.

Lowell Elks Off for Boston Saturday Night

Many Lowell Elks are going to Boston next Saturday to attend the dinner given by the Boston Lodge at the Copley Plaza Hotel to its exalted ruler, Daniel J. Kane, who has just returned from Europe. Joseph M. Sullivan, P. E. R., and chairman of the dinner committee says: "Most of our members prefer the Elcho cigar, so we have ordered Elchos for the after dinner smoke. The long Havana filler, I am told, gives the Elcho the mildness which makes it so popular."

INTEREST CENTERS IN DARTMOUTH-YALE GAME AT NEW HAVEN

Sensing Another Upset Fans Look Forward to Game in Bowl Next Saturday—Yale Warned of Impending Disaster Prepares for Strenuous Battle

NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (by the Associated Press).—Sensing another upset, interest in the week-end gridiron contests has veered sharply to New Haven, where Yale and Dartmouth will clash.
The Green swept through its preliminary games with modesty that has rathered confidence in an ability to "go out and clean up" this season. Yale, standing in the path, must be destroyed.
Yale, with its great squad of 1923 disrupted by graduation and ineligible rules, has not been impressive in its reconstruction. The stage was set for a Dartmouth victory.
But preparations in Hanover were a bit too feverish and the confidence overblown. The prospects and their way into print and into New Haven. Yale was warned; and a team with a football tradition, regardless of its physical make-up, will be hard to defeat after it has been warned of impending disaster.
Now, both elevens will trot on the field in a big game atmosphere. The physical element will be added to the physical; and Yale has so much confidence in its own fighting qualities that odds once leaning toward Dartmouth, have now been declared even.

The big punch of the Green and one of the first candidates for "all honors" to arise this year, is "Swede" Oberlander, a lineman reformed into a halfback. He is a 200-pound triple-threat player with ten touchdowns already to his credit. In addition to the ordinary qualifications, the Nordic menace to Eli is credited with a hamlike hand, a stiff arm like a board and interfering ability of a high order.
So, Yale prepares for "Swede" if he passes the Blue test he will be entitled to further consideration as one of the great backfield men of the year.
Dartmouth will meet Pond and Cottle, who ran through the last scrubs for a touchdown yesterday, and Eddie Bunch, converted into a quarterback and picked as the possible successor to Bill Mallory in the Yale scheme for the season.
Other camps begin to announce the "out for the seasons" which opposing coaches had and sometimes snuff at. Army reports Baxter out of the Notre Dame contest. Quarterback Terrill of Rutgers will be out of the Cornell game. Auburn substitute lineman, had a bone in his ankle broken at Columbia.

Brings Ghosts of Dead Ships to Skippers Who Lost Them

CAPTAIN ALFRED MCNEIL AND ONE OF HIS "GHOST" MODELS OF LOST SHIPS

BY GENE COHN
N. E. A. Service Writer
SAILORS' SNUG HARBOR, N. Y., Oct. 15.—He is known as "the maker of lost ships."
Here where 500 old men of the sea have come to await the last ebb tide, Captain Alfred McNeil is cheating "Davy Jones" of ancient victories by seeking to immortalize brave craft that went to romantic death.
By so doing he has built up a one-man industry that brings him orders from the four corners of the globe. For most sailors folk have more than a little of sentiment and there is some one ship that was their pride and love.
Ships, like men, have a short span of life before the seas swallow them or the rocks break them. Such ships are like lost children to their masters.
Thus philosophizes the old Scotch skipper whose aged but alert fingers piece together replicas of brigantines, barkentines, schooners—all the sailing ship types known to the seven seas.
For these he gets $150 and up.
"It started when I made models of ships on which I once had sailed, ships which had been lost," explains Captain

TO EQUALIZE OCEAN AND RAIL-FREIGHT RATES FOR SPECIAL SESSION OF LEAGUE COUNCIL

GENEVA, Oct. 15 (By the Associated Press).—Prime Minister MacDonald of Great Britain today telegraphed to the secretariat-general of the League of Nations, asking that a special session of the council of the league be called to interpret the controversy between Great Britain and Turkey over the status quo boundary between Turkey and Iraq.

PROF. FRANK O. KREAGER 500 STUDENTS STRIKE PROTEST TO JAPANESE IS SPEAKER HERE

The profitable values derived when psychology is dominant in business campaigns of the present day, were summed up in a timely address, full of sage advice delivered yesterday before the members of Lowell Advertising club, by Prof. Frank O. Kreager, director of the State University extension bureau of education, and also an instructor in Harvard graduate school of education.
Before the address and following the weekly dinner session of the club, in the Y.M.C.A. building, President Thomas Atkinson asked for a report from the outgoing committee. The total sum of money expended for the celebration was $267.47 and receipts, $244.94.
Mr. Kreager opened his half-hour talk to the clubmen by explaining the relations between psychology and business. He said lack of psychology on the part of Americans working to improve commerce and social relations with people in South America, was responsible for the dwindling continental business transactions recorded at the present time. This trade could be revived and increased if the residents of the two continents worked together psychologically, the speaker said.
Referring to industrial conditions in New England at the present time, the student of human nature and the ill that affect humans industrially and socially, declared, emphatically, "New England's future lies in keeping up the skill of New England workers and developing the artistic side of the workers as well. I doubt if the south can develop as skillful labor as that to be found in New England, and yet if we do not continue to develop our human energy in the textile production sections of this part of the country, we shall go backward and never return to our old place with prestige never yet excelled."
Mr. Kreager believed, he said, that New England lacks about 40 per cent. psychology today, and this percentage will increase if the highest element that makes up the population in all six states is not considered. He said he believed 30-hour-per-week working hours might settle some of the labor problems of New England, for workers would be more contented and be able to produce as much or more with less hours of labor scheduled for continuous daily work, he felt. He said as much work could be performed on the shorter day schedules as the longer, because "of the psychology of the situation." It would mean more "pulling together," he added.
He called for more readjustments in business where business is stagnant. The fundamentals of business and psychology are the same. New England's future lies in the development of the country's vast resources. He said the future prosperity and safety of the American people, Mr. Kreager said in conclusion.

LOWELL MINISTERS HOLD MEETING
Rev. Charles S. Otto, president of Lowell Ministers' association, opened the first fall meeting of the organization scheduled for yesterday, at the Y.M.C.A., welcoming nearly 50 members and guests and inviting all present to a splendid dinner before the association meetings during the season of 1924-25, are to be held on the second Wednesday of each month, from October to May, at the Lowell Y.M.C.A. An unusually interesting program has been arranged to cover all of the seven monthly rallies of the clergymen to come.
This afternoon, after devotions, the president of the association formally opened the exercises which were to last about one hour. Rev. E. T. Jackson was the principal speaker, describing a program of community evangelism as recently demonstrated in Fitchburg.
A speaker was scheduled to be present to address the members on November election referendum topics. Circulars containing printed explanations of the seven referendum questions that are to be placed on the November ballots, were distributed to all members. The republican state committee, 18 Tremont street, Boston, issued the long list of referenda, but no political advice accompanied the documents, which have distributed throughout the state without charge for purpose of public information only.
Rev. Mrs. Otto announced that at the November meeting, Rev. Lewis Shields would be the leader. Rev. John T. Ullom would lead devotions. The topic of the day's discussion will be, "The Works of Davy Jones."
Rev. Arthur C. McEliff is vice president and Harold F. Howe secretary-treasurer of the Lowell Ministers' association this year.

FAMOUS INVESTIGATOR DEAD
BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 15.—John S. Lemon, 53, special investigator of the postoffice department, who is credited with having cleared up the $2,000,000 mail robbery at Rendon, Ill., last June 12, and landed Postoffice Inspector William F. ("Bill") Fahy behind the bars, died yesterday in a hospital here, after an operation for colic.

WASH. OCT. 15.—Water behind the new dam of the Sugar Island power development on the Racquette river was to be pumped out today in an effort to ascertain the cause of the death yesterday of Bert Woodward of Colton, a diver.

Woodward, wearing a full divers' equipment, went down into nine feet of water to do some work on the new dam. Suddenly his signal rope appeared on the surface, having been several feet below the water. Then his helpmate came to the surface. Fellow workmen recovered the body from the river, using pike poles, but efforts to resuscitate him were without avail. Woodward's employers were unable to explain the accident.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The ports of Norfolk, Portsmouth, and Newport News today petitioned the Inter-State Commerce commission to dismiss the appeal of the port of New York, authority and New England ports for a joint hearing by the Inter-State Commerce commission and the shipping board on equalization of ocean and rail freight rates. The three cities, intervenors in the case, claim the commission has no jurisdiction over ocean rates and therefore cannot participate in any decision affecting them.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—(By the Associated Press).—American officials here, seriously concerned over what is termed "insidious" anti-American propaganda conducted by the Japanese press, are planning a protest to the Japanese foreign office.

According to translations made by the United States consulate interpreter, the Manchu Nichi Nichi says: "American officers are taking part in the battle of Shanghai-Kwan, driving Chinese tanks. Many American soldiers are mixed with the Chinese troops, wearing Chinese dress."

As a result of all this propaganda, Americans in Mukden are distrustful. American newspaper correspondents are treated as spies and followed by Chinese police.

No American newspaperman has been allowed to visit the front. Even Capt. Norman Baldwin, official United States military observer, has not been granted permission to go to the battlefield.

While fighting continued today at Shanghai-Kwan, the results were not known. Terror reigns in the Chinese section of Mukden, owing to an order impressing coolies into front line war service. Many coolies have fled to the Japanese concession here.

Casualties in the army of General Chang Tso-lin, battling against the Peking government forces on the Manchurian-Chihli border, are heavier than first reports indicated. An estimate today placed the total dead or injured at 14,300.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—(By the Associated Press).—Secretary Wallace underwent an operation here today for removal of his appendix and treatment of his gall bladder.

WASHINGTON.—Approximately $5,200,000 will be credited as a German reparations payment to the United States when the 24-3 is formally accepted by this government.

MADRID.—Col. Millan-Astray, founder of the Spanish Foreign Legion in Morocco, has been appointed high commissioner for Morocco. It was announced today.

HOLDEN.—Joseph E. LePage, 62 years old, died today in his home here, as the result of burns received when a kerosene can from which he was pouring oil on lighted kindling wood in the kitchen stove, exploded.

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, was unanimously re-elected president of the American Child Health association, at its meeting here.

WASHINGTON.—Republicans of Iowa were advised today by Chairman Smoot of the finance committee and one of the republican leaders of the senate, to vote against Senator Brookhart, republican nominee for re-election.

DENVER, Colo.—The Rev. Walter Gracia, formerly priest of the Shrine of St. Anne at Arvada, Colo., was enroute today to the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kas., to begin a two-year term for forging a government whiskey application.

PROVIDENCE.—R. I.—Edward M. Sullivan, former democratic mayor of Cranston, today filed papers with the secretary of state nominating himself a candidate for the United States senate as a "liberal independent."

ST. LOUIS.—Miss Janet Lee Collins, St. Louis society girl, and Jose Francisco Mariate Gut, secretary of the Peruvian legation at Rome, were married secretly yesterday at Clayton, a suburb, by a justice of the peace.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—It was indicated, there would be no prolonged session of the senate committee on the investigation of campaign funds meeting here today to inquire into Democratic, republican and La Follette expenditures. The committee, presided over by Senator Borah, was represented as being disposed to accept the reports of the campaign managers in good faith, unless there was concert even to the contrary.

NEW SEAPLANE RECORD
WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—An official world record for non-stop flight by a seaplane was set by a new scouting plane at Anacostia today. The plane, remaining in the air 24 hours, 10 minutes and 10 seconds, against the old time of 14 hours, 53 minutes and 44 seconds.

Five days ago a composite, type seaplane, single-motored, stayed in the air twenty hours and 20 minutes, but the flight was not properly checked and was not recognized.

REFUSED TO ACCEPT CUT
PALMER, Mass., Oct. 15.—The gates of the Thorndike company textile mills whose 500 employees yesterday refused to accept a wage cut of 11 per cent., were opened today but only a few operatives appeared for work.

Agent Charles A. Tabor of the company announced that the mills would be closed until such time as the wage reduction was accepted.

Prize Winning Twins

These two little shavers have been declared to be the finest twins in the country. They are David and Herbert Johnson, two and a half years old, of Brooklyn, N. Y. They have won first prize in every baby contest in which they have been entered. Here you see them holding the last trophy cup they won.

Their mother dresses them alike, but she has no difficulty in distinguishing one from the other when they are together. Yet on rare occasions when one of them is alone she doesn't know whether it is Herb or Dave.

These fellows haven't decided on their futures, but it looks as though some football team will have a pair of husky tackles.

RENEWED HYSTERIA IS APPARENT IN SHANGHAI

SHANGHAI, Oct. 15.—(By the Associated Press) Renewed hysteria was apparent today in the ranks of the native Chinese population of Shanghai by reports of the advance of General Ito Shu-Tseng, "Little Hsu," with a move to revive the defeated Chokiang forces and renew hostilities against the Kiangsu forces.
The reports said the little Hsu had bribed troops from Hupeh province allied with the winning Kiangsu army to desert that cause and join forces with the defeated Chokiang troops against General Chi Shieh-Yuan, military governor of Kiangsu province.
Little Hsu, who has played a prominent part in the military activities carried on in China by the old Anpa party, the protégé of General Chi-tui, minister of war in the first cabinet formed by the Chinese republic. He is a member of the anti-government Chiang Fu party.

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, Oct. 15.—George Walker, discoverer of the richest gold reef in South Africa, died here recently a pauper. Two very large buttons of brown composition serve as a trimming and also a fastening. This is a very charming outfit for afternoon tea or the matinee.

PICTURESQUE SLEEVES

The picturesque sleeves are the most noticeable feature of this brown moire frock. They are of pleated chiffon a few shades lighter than the dress. The chiffon is also introduced in the under panel and the scarf that is a part of the outfit. Two very large buttons of brown composition serve as a trimming and also a fastening. This is a very charming outfit for afternoon tea or the matinee.

NOT TO PROBE CAMPAIGN FUNDS

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—It was indicated, there would be no prolonged session of the senate committee on the investigation of campaign funds meeting here today to inquire into Democratic, republican and La Follette expenditures. The committee, presided over by Senator Borah, was represented as being disposed to accept the reports of the campaign managers in good faith, unless there was concert even to the contrary.

PROTEST COOLIDGE FLAYS CHILD LABOR AMENDMENT

Organized Labor
Be Delivered to Candidate.

Communication from the Secretary of the Carpenters Union No. 19, is of general interest in the coming election of the labor vote, so called, to the effect that any party has accepted in some quarters and presented, not only in Lowell but in the United States.

Lowell Sun, October 15, 1924.

The Carpenters' Lowell Union No. 19, have been instructed by the local press protesting the members against the unauthorized and unwarranted use of an official against the Labor Council, at a recently held a vote held that "organized labor campaign vote for La.
That official spoke as if he had authority to deliver the votes of the labor vote, to La. Bollette and the Labor Union No. 19, of the secretary, wishes to enter a protest against this utterance that neither the official in nor any other, regardless of his position in the Trades and Labor Union, even in the national American Federation of Labor, has any right to say how or labor will vote in the coming election.

Editor, the members of organized labor, free men whose suffrage should be officially controlled and delivered to any candidate, or any interest, in the sacred trust of the polling booth, should be organized and enter with the same and as his constituents for the best interests of his city, state and nation, and that it should ever be remembered that every citizen of labor should have to accept of any official high or political issues or the choice of any party for important public offices, and that every citizen would soon be wiped out and institutions would be supported by a despotic more in keeping with an absolute monarchy than a democracy, in which every citizen should be a participant in the government of the people.

I know of no labor union in which his member of the labor union can control any of his own, and the Carpenters at a meeting held October 7th instructed me to inform the public of this clear to the public of the newspapers.

Sincerely yours,
W. H. HANDLEY, Rec. Sec.

SHENANDOAH READY TO RESUME FLIGHT

SAN DIEGO, CALIF., Oct. 15.—(By the Associated Press)—After an enforced stay of five days at the North Island aviation field because of inclement weather in the north Pacific, the memorable naval dirigible Shenandoah was ready to start off from her announcing next today for the flight to Camp
Lewis, at Seattle, Wash.

Weather reports from the north last night indicated to Rear-Admiral W. A.
Moffett, chief of the naval bureau of aeronautics, and Lieutenant-Commander Zachary Lansdowne, the Shenan-doah's commanding officer, that the weather along the dirigible's proposed route was clearing. Lieutenant-Commander Lansdowne said, however, that low hanging early morning clouds might cause some delay in getting the dirigible's huge gas bags warmed up for the start.

SOCIALIST MINISTER BARS NATIONAL ANTHEM

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 15.—Elimination of the national anthem, which is customarily played when the king is present, was ordered by the socialist minister of fine arts at a gala jubilee performance last evening in the Royal Theatre.

Most of the socialist ministers objected to their colleague's order, and the public showed its resentment by rising and singing all the verses of the anthem, concluding with loud cheers for the king.

GAS SUPERINTENDENT AWARDED MEDAL

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 16.—Before an audience of three thousand officials of gas companies gathered in convention on the Steel pier last night, Edward D. Ryan, superintendent of gas distribution of the Fitchburg Gas and Electric Light Company, was awarded the McCarter medal by the American Gas Association.

The medal is the gift of Thomas N. McCarter, president of the Public Service Electric and Gas Company of New Jersey and is awarded annually to any employee of a public utility company who saves the life of a person overcome by gas, by means of the Schaeffer Pump Pressure Method and the utilization of the most modern resuscitation equipment.

In a citation accompanying the award it was shown that Mr. Ryan saved the life of Bernard Scanlon, 21 years old, of 261 South Street, Fitchburg, when the latter, on October 27, 1923, was overcome by gas while taking a bath. A telephone call made to the gas company at midnight brought Ryan to the Scanlon home and after twenty-five minutes of resuscitation work, he revived Scanlon, who suffered no ill after-effects.

Mr. Ryan lives at 52 South Street, Fitchburg.

TREMBLED WITH NERVOUSNESS

Mrs. Viney Did Not Know a Good Night's Rest Until She Took This Treatment

The first thing to do when threatened with nervous trouble is to stop the cause of it, if possible, whether it is irregular living, worry or whatever it may be. Then the nerves must be given special nourishment and the blood must be kept pure and rich. This is the mission of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and this is why the pills have been used with such great success in nervous troubles that did not yield to ordinary methods of treatment.

Mrs. Thomas Viney, of No. 28 Brattle street, Portland, Me., was in an extremely nervous condition for two years. "At times," she says, "I would tremble all over and could not hold anything steady in my hands. After eating I had a nervous trembling in my stomach. I had sour stomach and nausea. I was dizzy a great deal and did not know what a good night's rest was. My circulation was so poor that I was cold on the coldest day."

"After trying other medicine without benefit I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and before I had taken them a week I was better. The trembling sensations went away. The improvement continued and I had no more indigestion and heartburn. I can eat a good meal now without distress afterward. My circulation is good and I no longer have dizzy spells. I cannot say too much for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

The free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System," will interest you. Write for it today to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, sixty cents a box.—Adv.

REPUBLICAN RALLIES HERE LAST NIGHT

Republican campaigners from Boston spoke at downtown points in Lowell last night and were heard by fair sized crowds. The speakers were C. A. Starratt and Dr. Maggi and they urged the election of the national and state G.O.P. tickets. Mr. Starratt spoke particularly of Coolidge and Dawes, Fuller and Congressman Rogers. The campaigners came in automobiles equipped with Magnavox horns and also carried violins for the dispensation of sweet music. Campaign plans carrying likenesses of Coolidge, Dawes and Fuller were distributed.

Republican workers of the Fifth congressional district held a rally and dinner last night at Lake Nagog Inn, with chairmen of city and town committees in attendance. Practically every town in the district was represented and Lowell sent a delegation of 25 men and women. Reports on registration were received and there were a number of after-dinner addresses, including one by Congressman Rogers.

SKIN ERUPTIONS YIELD TO SULPHUR

Apply Sulphur as Told When Your Skin Breaks Out

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation begins at once to soothe irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rash, pimples, and ring worms.

Rash seldom fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles' Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Adv.

STRATFORD DANCE AT COLONIAL HALL

The first of the Stratford Friday nights of this season will be held on next Friday night at Colonial hall in Palmer street. This organization will be remembered as having conducted the weekly parties at the Highland club last season. However, for the convenience of their patrons, they have decided that a more centrally located hall was desirable and naturally Colonial hall was the first and best choice.

The hall in itself is beautiful and, together with its wonderful dance floor and superb orchestra, will make the success of Stratford parties a certainty.

Their opening party was held on Columbus night and, judging from the large but select gathering of young people present, the Stratford dances are what the dancing people have been waiting for.

John Broderick's orchestra will furnish the dance music and Colonial hall is the place and Friday night is the time of the Stratford parties.

Any cards reading that a Stratford dance will be held in the Highland club on Friday night are obviously incorrect. All Stratford parties will be held in Colonial hall this season.

Men, Women and Children

Some five weeks ago we purchased from The J. R. Armitage Shoe Co., Danvers, Mass., their entire stock of shoes at a remarkably low price.

The reason for their selling out their entire plant is on account of sickness, as they have successfully conducted a manufacturing business for 30 years we feel that every pair of shoes offered in this sale will be well worth considerable more than the sale price.

BRITISH PART OF LOAN COVERED TEN TIMES

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The remarkable success achieved in floating the British portion of the German loan yesterday, forms the chief topic this morning for all the financial editors, who agree that the 12,000,000 pounds sterling was probably subscribed five times over. Some report that it was commonly estimated in the money market yesterday that the British slice had been covered ten times.

This eagerness to subscribe is regarded as especially noteworthy, in view of the existence of considerable sentimental aversion to lending money to Germany, and the fact that this had to adverse effect is attributed in some quarters to profound faith in the Dawes plan as a means of rescuing Europe from her troubles.

HEAD OROKERS

Head "chokers" of gold, silver or gun metal are very much in evidence these days.

To Make Rich Red Blood

Revitalize your worn-out exhausted nervous and increase your strength and endurance—take Organic Iron; not metallic iron which people usually take, but pure organic iron—Nuxated Iron—which is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. One dose of Nuxated Iron is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating one-half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen apples. It is like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat. Nuxated Iron is partially predigested and ready for almost immediate absorption and assimilation by the blood, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of organic acids on small pieces of iron filings.

Millions of people usually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. A few doses will often commence to enrich your blood. Your money will be returned by the manufacturers if you do not obtain satisfactory results.

Beware of substitutes. Always insist on having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters N. O. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists—Adv.

NUXATED IRON

For Red Blood Strength and Endurance

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it keeps them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using the well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes. Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Beauty

A Gleamy Mass of Hair

35c "Danderine" does Wonders for Any Girl's Hair

Girls! Try this! When combing and dressing your hair, just moisten your hair brush with a little "Danderine" and brush it through your hair. The effect is startling! You can do your hair up immediately, and it will appear twice as thick and heavy—a mass of gleamy hair, sparkling with life and possessing that incomparable softness, freshness and luxuriance.

While beautifying the hair "Danderine" is also toning and stimulating each single hair to grow thick, long and strong. Their stops falling out, dandruff disappears. Get a bottle of delightful, refreshing "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter and just see how healthy and youthful your hair becomes—Adv.

200 OF STRIKING STUDENTS STILL OUT

ANDERSON, S. C., Oct. 16.—Only two hundred of the 500 or more cadets of the Clemson College, who walked out as a protest against the suspension of R. F. (Dutch) Holohan, president of the senior class and certain conditions in the college mess hall, were missing from the barracks this morning, according to information received here from the school.

Many of the striking cadets returned and college officials said they expected most, if not all, to be back in a day or two. Class work was resumed as usual today, with about 750 students attending chapel out of an enrollment of approximately 1,000.

The situation at the school was described as quiet, with students and officials marking time pending consideration of the affair at a meeting of the board of trustees Monday night.

Although it was stated that the students plan to press their demands for more and better food, for the engagement of a matron for the mess hall, and for reinstatement of all students who left the college, it was said they had withdrawn their request for the reinstatement of Holohan who was suspended for one year on a charge of drinking whiskey.

FOREIGN-BORN CITIZEN AT WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—A reception and buffet luncheon for a delegation of the foreign-born citizens' association was the principal political item on President Coolidge's engagement list today. This followed a series of conferences with various callers for discussion of government business and campaign developments.

Brief addresses to the foreign-born citizens delegation, and to representatives of the Coolidge-Dawes theatrical league, who will be received by the President tomorrow, are the only speeches on his program until next Thursday at a divisional meeting here of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

BODY OF WOMAN IS FOUND IN RIVER

BRIDGEWATER, Oct. 16.—After an all-night search by night shift employees at the Stanley Iron Works, friends and neighbors, the body of Mrs. Anna Cummings, aged 48, of high street, was found floating in town river at 2.30 this morning.

The body was found by James Higgins, after the fire department had been called to assist in the search. Mrs. Cummings, who had suffered from nervous disorders, wandered away from her home early in the evening.

Her absence was discovered about 9.30 by her daughter who sounded the alarm.

KIDNAPED AND FORCED TO MARRY GIRL

GREENWOOD, S. C., Oct. 16.—A story of having been kidnaped from one of the principal business streets of this city, taken into the country and forced against his will to marry a young woman, was told to police here today by G. F. Edge, head of an investment company.

According to Edge's narrative, five men participated in the kidnaping these being joined later by 100 hooded men. One of the latter, he said, performed the marriage ceremony, and then gave him a lecture. Edge announced he would not consider the marriage binding.

LONDON MAYOR A PROMINENT CATHOLIC

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The new lord mayor of London, Sir Alfred Bower, is a prominent member of the Catholic church, as also are F. J. Barthorpe and H. G. Downer, the two sheriffs next in authority. There have been several Catholic lord mayors, but this is said to be the first administration in which all three of the ruling dignitaries are of the Catholic faith.

E. J. Campbell of Thurston county, Washington, announced that he has developed a stingless bee.

SICK WOMAN MADE HAPPY

Mart, Texas.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to build me up as was all run-down, nervous and sick. I ached and hurt all over so that I was often compelled to go to bed, and I had to have most of my work done. No medicine seemed to help me until one of my neighbors was taken to the hospital. The Vegetable Compound insisted on me trying a bottle of it. The medicine helped me from the first, and the best of all is that I can even sew again without that awful, nervous feeling I was used to having. And I used to take crying spells, with such a blue feeling that I cannot explain. Now all that has left me. I feel so cheerful, and I have gained in weight, sleep well and eat hearty. Oh! I wish I had words to express what this medicine has done for me! I am a housekeeper and do every thing from the sewing to the washing now and it doesn't hurt me. You may use my letter in any way you wish. I will be glad to help any suffering woman to the road of health and happiness."

AN EPOCHAL FLIGHT

In many respects the flight of the great Zeppelin, ZR-3, across the Atlantic from Europe is an epochal event. This performance demonstrates beyond peradventure the practicability of aerial navigation on a large scale by airships even larger than the monster that has just reached these shores.

It marks a vast step forward and one that is destined to revolutionize to a very great extent our present methods of transoceanic travel and particularly the transmission of the mails and light freight. For some time to come, there will naturally be a feeling of insecurity in shipping valuable cargoes on a Zeppelin to be carried across the ocean, but there is little doubt that in time the Zeppelin will be regarded as being quite as safe as the average steamship.

But another feature of the passage of this airship across the ocean was quite remarkable as showing the marvelous progress recently made in the transmission of intelligence from the radio station at Chatham, Mass. A message was caught from the ZR-3 when she was yet 2000 miles from the American coast, and at every step of her progress, she was in communication with Europe or America, and for the greater part of the course simultaneously with both. Really we are living in an age in which great inventions and discoveries have become so numerous and so familiar in our daily lives, that we have ceased to wonder at achievements which are destined to remain the marvel of the ages.

COALITION AGAINST MACDONALD

It is announced that the Liberal and Conservative parties in Great Britain have reached an understanding by which they will avoid three-cornered fights against the Laborites. That means that they will join their forces against the labor candidates and thus do everything possible to defeat ex-Premier MacDonald's ambition to be returned with a working majority. The people, however, will have something to say about the matter and may not take kindly to this coalition against the first labor ministry in the history of the British parliament. If the Laborites do not have a majority neither will either of the other parties.

It seems that the time is at hand when one or other of the old parties will pass out of existence and that in order to control parliament or constitute a decent opposition, they will have to form what may be a permanent coalition under which perhaps the old Tory party will disappear.

LA FOLLETTE PROMISES

Senator La Follette is certainly quite liberal in making sweeping promises. He has promised emergency legislation to restore the equality of agriculture with other industries to give the farmers representation in the cabinet, on the Federal Reserve and Farm Loan boards, the Interstate Commerce Commission and other government bodies. "He will" repeal the transportation act of 1920 and reduce freight rates approximately to pre-war levels on agricultural products, livestock and all materials and implements required by American farms. He will also revise the Federal Reserve system so that farmers can distribute credit on an equal footing with the bankers who now control the people's credit. He will reduce the price of fertilizer through the development of Muscoda Shells and conduct an investigation by which officials who owe their positions to the influence of the packers, the railroads and other privileged groups will be removed. That, in substance, is the drift of his speech at Kansas City, Mo., last week.

Does any human being outside an insane asylum imagine for a moment that even if La Follette were elected president, he would have any power to bring about one-twentieth part of these promised reforms?

In order to do so, he would first require a majority in both houses of congress and then he would have to abolish the laws of supply and demand, which usually rule prices of farm commodities as well as the rate of wages and the cost of living, something beyond the power of congress.

To say that railroad rates for farm products alone will be reduced to pre-war levels is simply foolish. This could not be done unless the wages paid by the railroads and the costs of supplies were similarly reduced. It is presumed that in many cases the freight rates are too high; but at the same time the railroads are protesting that they are on the verge of bankruptcy and if La Follette's scheme were applied, most of the railroads would be obliged to go out of business and leave the transportation problems to be solved by the government. Of course this would be satisfactory to the socialists and others who look to the government to maintain the well-being of every class throughout the country.

We submit that neither the farmer nor the working man can live on a diet of empty promises that can never be fulfilled.

HUGHES REPLIES TO DAVIS

Secretary Hughes has evidently been chosen to answer the attacks of John W. Davis upon the republican party in reference to its foreign policy or the lack thereof, and the extravagant claims made in behalf of the disarmament conference. Hughes now charges Davis with the design of bringing the United States into the League of Nations, whereas Mr. Davis has only advocated a referendum on the question as laid down in the democratic platform. He would, however, adopt a plain and undisguised foreign policy of co-operation with Europe instead of the unofficial representation adopted by the present administration and acknowledged as official only when it happens to be successful. He is opposed to secret diplomacy and equally to diplomatic eavesdropping. Mr. Davis also asserts that if he is elected president of the United States, this government will be represented "officially" at the arms conference to be called next summer.

Secretary Hughes is by far the shrewdest and keenest lawyer now prominent in the government; but he cannot break down nor refute the sweeping charges made by Mr. Davis against the malfeasance, mismanagement and general failure of the republican party in directing the government during the past four years.

THE GERMAN LOAN

The fact that the German loan of $300,000,000 was over-subscribed to the extent of $1,500,000,000, indicates implicit faith in the future of Germany.

The greatest of all shows nowadays is the German's gorgeous exhibition of autumn splendors.

SEEN AND HEARD

The only way for the weather to satisfy people is not to have any.

After practicing eating gravy for 40 or 50 years some men still spill it on their vests.

Men are not always superior to animals. When a dog starts itching he can scratch anywhere.

A Thought
Like fragile ice, anger passes away in time.—Virgil.

Safety First
An individual who was gazing at some dress dummies in the window of a store saw his wife coming down the street and promptly moved his position to one in front of a dress shop. Said his chum: "Why, John, surely your wife wouldn't be jealous of a wax model." "Maybe not," responded John, "but a married man soon learns not to take any chances."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Disappointed
I was standing at the rim of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, writes Elizabeth M. Morris, and trying my best to get some idea of the greatness of the chasm before me. An old lady, standing near me, interrupted my musings with the remark: "They told me it was a mile wide and a mile deep, and it isn't either." Turning away in disgust, she added: "Huh! I bet the railroad company dug this thing just to get people to come out here."—Kansas City Star.

Scared the Poor Woman
A woman rushed excitedly to the house of a neighbor. She knocked once very nervously, but there was no reply. A second knock produced no answer. Presently the window above was thrown open and a woman's face appeared. The woman below looked up and exclaimed, hurriedly: "Mrs. Jones, your husband's been sentenced to jail for a month." "O, dear me, Mrs. Smith," replied the other, "How you did frighten me! I thought it was the man after the rent again."

Too Much Talk
"Don't be long-winded," said Elihu Root at a lawyer's banquet in New York. "I once fought a case against a long-winded man named Blank (Blank, in his closing speech, spouted for three hours, and then began repeating himself. Finally, on toward the end of the fourth hour, the judge interrupted him: 'Really, you know, Mr. Blank,' he protested, 'you've said all that has to be said.' 'Have I, your honor?' said Blank. 'I beg your pardon; I'd forgotten.' 'I can readily forgive you, Mr. Blank,' said the judge, 'for forgetting, it was such a long time ago.'"

Genuine Optimist
Brown was a supreme optimist; nothing ever worried him. One day, during a flood, he was seen by a neighbor lucky enough to possess a boat, sitting peacefully on the roof of his house as the water rose. "Hullo, Brown," cried the neighbor. "Hullo, Sam," replied Brown, cheerfully. "All your poultice washed away, I suppose?" inquired the sympathizer. "Yes," said Brown, "but the ducks can swim." "Apple trees gone, too, eh?" "Yes, but the crop would have failed anyway." "So will you," retorted the other, "if you sit there much longer. Why, the water's covered your ground floor windows already." "I know," assented Brown, "and a good thing it is, too. Then windows don't want washing."

Charlie's Chief Concern
The janitor had a couple of men working in a seventh floor window. A cat from the way suddenly got away from them and crashed to the pavement, missing a leg by inches. For an instant I was sick from fright; then I got mad. I picked up the largest fragment of casting and booted from the door. Just inside I met the janitor. "My God, Charlie," I screamed, "what a terrible thing has happened. Those fool workmen on the seventh floor let this pulley drop and it barely missed my head." Charlie reached for the piece of casting. "Goodness," he exploded, "and I chust bought it."

Go Where Glory Waits Thee
Go where glory waits thee,
But while fame eludes thee,
O still remember me.
When the praise thou moolest
To think our is sweetest,
O then remember me.
Other arms may press thee,
Dearest friends may care thee,
All the joys that bless thee,
Sweetest fact may be;
But when friends are nearest,
And when joys are dearest,
O then remember me.

When, at eve, thou rovest
By the star thou lovest,
O then remember me.
Think, when home returning,
Bright we've seen it burning,
O then remember me.
Or as summer closes,
When thine eyes repose
On its lingering roses,
O then remember me.
Think of her who wove them,
Her who made thee love them,
O then remember me.

When autumn leaves are flying,
Autumn leaves are flying,
O then remember me.
And, at night, when gazing
On the gay hearth blazing,
O then remember me.
Then should music, stealing
All the soul of feeling,
To thy heart appeal,
O then remember me.
Then let memory bring thee
Straits I used to sing thee—
O then remember me.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

A glance at the monthly report of the city auditor is always informative and sometimes impressive. One notices at first items that ordinarily would not be heard of. For instance, who would think that the frugal Auditorium trustees, with nine months of the year gone, still have a balance of over $10,000 in their allotment for expenses and supplies. Some difference, for instance, with the city's budget, the department of lands and buildings which is called upon to struggle through the remainder of the year with but $1600 left for the same purposes. Or take again the cemetery department, which has a comfortable balance of over $15,000. It almost seems that the city total many hundreds, yet over $7000 is available to meet some of the just ones. And the isolation hospital investigation account isn't closed because of a deficit of $130.

Of the $1800 Labor day appropriation, but $1400 was expended, the statement shows. That's close figuring. On the Memorial day appropriation accounts we find balances brought forward of 20 cents by the Disabled War Veterans, and 26 cents by the Navy club. It almost seems that the ridiculous malling of a few letters and the purchase of the necessary postage to carry them might well save the city some bookkeeping. There is $131 available for pound keeper's salary. I didn't know for sure that we had one any more.

Despite the purchase of ten teams of horses by the board of public service we find $129 charged against ashes and waste for hire of horses in September. Street money in the amount of $20.80 was also taken for the same purpose.

Research work on the list of names for memorial tablets at the Auditorium cost $75 during September. Hand concerts cost $300. It cost $1650 for the use of the big bandstand on the Centennial play field. Taxicabs to take members of the city council home from midnight sessions that could have been over at 10 o'clock if started promptly, cost $8.80 during September.

The fire department spent $3.07 for badgering in September, perhaps, but interesting to some folks. A local singlet drew $18 for its vocal efforts under municipal auspices. One Lowell bank sold a map of Lowell to the board of health for $40. The reaching of the health yard set the city back $6.80. Insurance premiums divided among six agents cost $341.53. Scribbling blocks at the isolation hospital cost $4.50, 15 cents a day if they used them all during the month. The license commission ran up a telephone bill of $18.50. Who said talk was cheap?

There's a 36 cent charge for a prescription against street paving. They're getting cheaper now. Sand cost over $1300. It shouldn't require that much to keep the streets from being holes.

Crackers must be the piece de resistance on the cell menus at the police station. One bakery drew $7.80 for them last month.

United States army airmen fly around the world, a giant airplane crosses the ocean from Germany to this country in 81 hours, with its passengers riding in apparent comfort and appearing at the ship's port holes at Lakehurst clean-shaven and egle and spun, just as nifty looking as if their morning toilet had been completed at home. The conquest of the air, first begun by the United States when (housands of young men were trained as aviators during the days of war, is on in earnest. The past seven years have witnessed marvelous advancement in the manufacture of aircraft and in every channel of aviation—what the next seven years have in store, no one can even guess. It is beyond the limits of human imagination. Even persons who have experienced air flights and become more or less familiar with the air during the days of war, marvel at the accomplishments of the past years.

The Lowell Navy club deserves considerable credit for its efforts to awaken residents of this city to the great opportunity offered by the Merrimack river above the falls for boating. The Merrimack falls, for boating, has been priced within reach of most everyone, the stretch of the river between the falls and Tyngs Island was a pretty sight, with motor boats, row boats and canoes to be seen on every hand. Nowadays it is unusual to see more than two or three boats of any description on this stretch of open water. The Navy club hopes by conducting races on Navy Day to awaken an interest in boating, and in this work it deserves the generous support of the public. Horatio B. Leggett is chairman of the Navy club committee. In charge of arrangements and has planned a four-sided cutter race between Lowell, Lawrence, Haverhill and Lynn Navy club teams which should prove of exceptional interest.

WAGE INCREASE FOR CARMEN

Boston Elevated Employees Given Raise of Two and One-Half Cents an Hour Highest Pay, Save One, in Country, Company Attorney Strongly Dissents

BOSTON, Oct. 18.—An increase of 2 1/2 cents an hour has been awarded the employees of the Boston Elevated by the arbitration committee.

To the blue union men who compose the great majority of the more than 1000 employees, this means a maximum rate of 75 cents an hour. The increase gives these workers the highest rate of wages ever paid to street carmen in the state of Massachusetts, and the second highest rate now being paid in the entire country. This higher rate is paid the summer of Chicago, who receive 75 cents an hour.

The wage award of the board of arbitrators was announced last night to the employees at a special meeting of the Boston Street Carmen's union at Ford hall. According to company reports, it will add $500,000 to the yearly payroll. Of this amount $175,000 will be for back wages, as the award is retroactive to July 1 of this year and continues in force to June 30, 1925.

8 Cents Extra for One-Man Cars
The differential rate paid the operators of one-man cars will remain the same, eight cents over the prevailing scale. This will mean that the operators of these cars, who have been paid at the rate of 75 cents an hour, will now receive 83 cents for that time.

The differential rates of 20 cents an hour for snow work and 12 1/2 cents for instruction work over the prevailing scale will continue. The request of the employees for vacations with pay and free transportation was denied. In every other department of the company the employees will have an increase of 2 1/2 cents an hour added to their present wages.

Decision Not Unanimous
The decision of the board was not unanimous. While Judge John D. McLaughlin of the superior court, chairman of the board, and James H. Van Meter, attorney for the carmen, expressed the view that 75 cents an hour "would under more favorable conditions, constitute a just and fair basic wage, in the present circumstances, giving due consideration to the present financial condition of the company and to the large total outgo entailed by an increase of even one cent per hour, we are of the opinion that 72 1/2 cents an hour is a reasonable hourly wage, and we accordingly fix it in that amount. Chas. W. Mulcahy, attorney for the company, could not concur.

In his dissenting opinion, Mr. Mulcahy declared that a year ago the wages of the men on the system were increased by a board of arbitration nearly 15 per cent over $175, and expressed his dissent to the majority of the board, "in putting them upon a 'fair and somewhat permanent basis.' The wages of these men have been advanced step by step by successive arbitrations until," said he, "in my judgment, this limit has been passed."

What Mulcahy Report Says
Mr. Mulcahy in his report points out that the annual wage of the blue union men is about $1775, with some getting over $2000. He compares these figures with the wages paid the policemen and firemen of the city of Boston, ranging from $1400 to $1900, the maximum rate being attained only after five years of service, and with the wages of the average letter carrier or postoffice clerk, placed at approximately $1750.

Dealing with the cost of living increases here in Boston, he points out that since 1914, the living costs have increased 63 per cent, while during the same period the wages of the blue union men have advanced from 31 1/2 cents to 75 cents an hour, or 124 per cent.

CADILLAC MEETING OPENS IN DETROIT

Last week marked the completion of 10 years' production of the V-type, eight-cylinder Cadillac and also the opening of the annual convention of distributors at the Cadillac factory. Russell Dana together with about 60 dealers in this section left early last week by special car for Detroit.

Practically 100 per cent attendance of distributors or their representatives from every state in the Union and from Canada was indicated by registrations. With the distributors were the company's district managers from every part of the country. The convention was also attended by all Cadillac officials and many executives and department heads.

On arrival at Detroit the party from this section was met by a whole fleet of new V-8 Cadillacs. Seven hours were devoted to inspection of the factory and an equal number of hours were utilized the following day for the same purpose. During the trip through the factory talks were given by several officials of the company.

The new custom built bodies which were announced last week were also shown in a dozen different finishes. After attending to the business which came before the convention the officials acting as hosts entertained their guests in royal fashion. Luncheon and dinners were frequent. Sight-seeing tours of the city and up the river to Belle Isle park were among the most enjoyable features of the convention.

EXAMINATION OF EGYPTIAN MUMMIES

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Examination of Egyptian mummies has revealed that the Pharaoh of Exodus had hardened arteries, while Ramesses V, suffered from a skin affliction suggestive of scabies. Professor G. Elliot Smith, Egyptologist of University college, London, said last night in an address at the Academy of Medicine.

Cancer, rheumatism and mastitis were common four thousand years ago, Prof. Smith declared, although thousands of human bodies unearthed only one case of gout and one of leprosy was discovered.

Tuberculosis was extremely rare, while rickets, he said, was entirely absent. One mummy found to the pyramis had suffered from cancer.

Symphony Orchestra Will Give Concert in Auditorium Without Soloist

Because Serge Koussevitzky, Russian conductor of the Boston Symphony orchestra, wants to make his first extra-Boston appearance a notable event, the orchestra will appear in Lowell on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 2, without a soloist.

Raymond Havens, pianist, had already been announced as soloist for the concert, but when Librarian Rogers visited the Auditorium and took stage measurements, he reported to

A conference followed between Manager Brennan of the orchestra and John Donovan of the Star series. It was decided that the orchestra would be better to forego a soloist for the occasion. So that there will be no Tchaikovsky concerto on the program.

It may seem surprising to learn that the Auditorium stage isn't big enough to give the orchestra enough room to add a grand piano for a concert program, but one should bear in mind that to get the best results from the various choirs in the orchestra they cannot be crowded together. The choice was to select a program that would not call for the entire strength of the orchestra but this did not seem desirable.

The Lowell concert will be the first outside Boston where Mr. Koussevitzky will appear. "The world do move," New York has to wait until late November for its chance to pass on the new conductor whose Boston success in his last week's premier was so emphatic that critics are calling Mr. Koussevitzky's successor as the heir apparent to Dr. Muck's baton and prestige.

The Lowell program is not completed but Beethoven's Fifth Symphony will probably be played.

INTERESTING LECTURE AT NORMAL SCHOOL

Frank P. Morse, supervisor of Junior and Senior high schools, Massachusetts state department of education, spoke interestingly before the pupils of the Lowell State Normal school yesterday afternoon on "The Relation of the Department to the Junior and Senior high schools."

Miss Blanche M. Cheney, of the faculty, introduced Mr. Morse as a wise leader, a gentleman and a scholar, stating that her work with him some years ago had been most pleasing and interesting.

Mr. Morse gave a personal narrative of his work as supervisor of the high schools of which there are 263 senior and 130 junior schools. His work is divided into two divisions, first field work and second, office work. There is no perceptible demarcation in the scope of his work although he stated he preferred the field work to the office routine.

Coming under the division of field work is the making of reports a task which is always difficult and tedious. School surveys which are always beneficial both to the schools visited and the communities in which the institutions are situated also come under the title of field work. Transportation and tuition fees, are major matters along this line of work, as there are always sufficient cases of this kind to keep one man busy all the time.

One of the important factors of the field work is the establishing of school libraries, a matter of general interest to Mr. Morse and in which he takes special delight. At present a list of reference books for the junior and high school pupil is being prepared and will contain the name, the author, publisher and selling price of thousands of volumes which contain information for the student.

The office work, termed more impersonal by the speaker, involves the approving of school organization blanks; tuition rates; school classification; editorial work; correspondence and the granting of interviews, all of which become more or less monotonous to Mr. Morse as it is through his office all these details must pass.

The certification of teachers, always a major matter in office work, entails countless hours of work, as the qualifications of the teacher must be investigated before the certificate is granted. Last year 122 certificates were granted teachers.

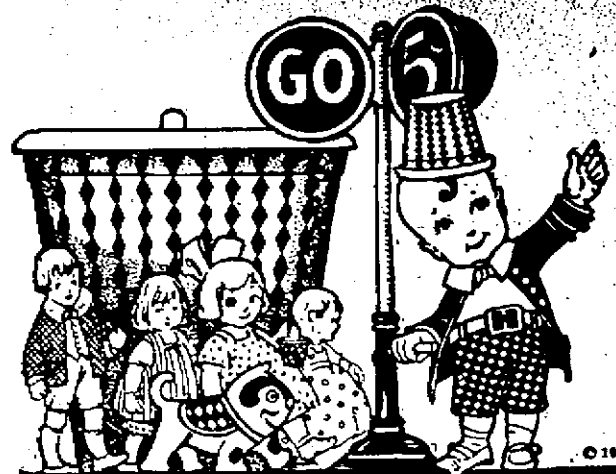

An interesting explanation was given by the speaker of the tuition charged. A state law indicates that a non-resident pupil attending a high school must pay a tuition fee, as must wards of the state. The rate charged per pupil is proportional to the yearly expenditure of the school.

Mr. Morse emphasized that fact that Massachusetts has no centralized school system. Massachusetts schools are among the best in the country and the opportunities offered therein give the student a broad and varied field of education.

The speaker read several letters which aided greatly in explaining the various snafus in his address, especially the transportation and tuition questions, two of the most misunderstood school problems. He brought his talk to a close citing numerous instances and experiences met in his broad field of work which brings him to the various sections of the state.

HELD WHIST PARTY

A very large and successful whist party was held recently at the home of the Hadassah Head, Miss Ida Fox, 94 Gates street, under the auspices of the Lowell Young Women's Hebrew association, for the benefit of the Hadassah. A small amount was charged for each person, and quite a sum was realized. After refreshments were served, the following received prizes: first prize to Miss Minnie Raymond; consolation prize to Miss Ruby Freeman.

"SECOND GUESSERS" HAD PLENTY OF CHANCES IN WORLD SERIES

Billy Evans Points Out That Even "Master Minds" Are Not Always Right—Discusses Some of the Mistakes in Recent Baseball Classic

BY BILLY EVANS

Even the master minds make mistakes in baseball.

It is a rather interesting experience to sit in the press box and hear the comments of the scribblers.

Having the second guess in a decided advantage but I must also admit that I have listened to a lot of very intelligent first guessing in the world series game.

As the unusual situations come up it is only natural that the experts should try to analyze them in advance.

In the third game of the series I did a little of it myself.

The stage was set for a Washington rally, the bases filled, only one out and the Giants' pitchers were parading in and out of the box so fast it was hard to keep track of them.

Throughout the game the Giants' pitchers had been very generous with bases on balls, always being in the hole. Lack of control gave Washington the big chance in the ninth.

Miller had the opportunity.

With the score standing 6 to 4 in New York's favor, a base hit would tie it up for Washington.

It was felt that Miller, a rookie who had only been in parts of four games, should have been the better.

What should Miller do? Would it be good ball for him to continue to wait out the New York pitcher? Or should he try to get the pitcher in the hole and then hit?

There was considerable delay at this point as Pitcher John Watson was summoned from the bullpen in far right field.

"How will Washington play it, AT ALUMNI FIELD FRIDAY AFTERNOON"

Lowell high will go after Boston high school of commerce at Alumni field tomorrow afternoon. Lowell should win, if one were to judge by comparative records, but records don't count much in football these days.

The red and gray eleven needn't be too confident in staking up against the Bostonians. They may provide an unexpected upset.

For this reason, Coaches Linton and Pierotti resumed practice sessions yesterday by sending the boys through a stiff workout. Particular attention being directed to hit low and hard, instead of high, as they did in the Manchester game.

Last Monday Lawrence high defeated Commerce, 31 to 6. Lowell will try to better that mark, if possible. All the regulars in line, hopes are high.

Faculty Manager James Conway, represents the attitude of the Manchester team in claiming that Lowell need unfailingly win in the holiday encounter.

With regard to the allegation that the New Hampshire eleven was not hospitably received, the faculty manager points to the fact that the team was requested to use the locker room between halves, but elected to remain on the field. That was their own business.

After the game, the high school gymnasium was thrown open to the visitors.

"KID" SULLIVAN KAYOS BALLERINO

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Steve (Kid) Sullivan is gradually adding value and prestige to his somewhat doubtful junior lightweight division. The new champion successfully defended his title for the second time last night by knocking out Mike Ballerino in the fifth round.

Sullivan, outpointed by Ballerino before he won the crown from Johnny Dundee, has acquired poise and confidence with the honor and promises to cut a clear niche for himself in fistie circles by fighting well and often.

LEWIS WINS OVER GEO. KOTSONAROS

EL PASO, Texas, Oct. 15.—Ed (Strangler) Lewis, successfully defended his world's heavyweight wrestling championship by defeating George Kotsonaros, Greek challenger, in straight falls here last night. The first fall was scored in fifty minutes, the second in two minutes. Lewis headlock won him both falls.

HOPPE ACCEPTS CHALLENGE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Willie Hoppe will accept the challenge of Young Jack Schaefer for a special bout, line match upon conditions. These are that they play two blocks of 3,200 points each, instead of one of 1,600 as Schaefer proposed, and that the match take place during the last two weeks of November. Hoppe is willing to go to the coast for the test.

London suburbs have suffered from a plague of daddy-long-legs, or crane flies.

Bill! yelled a dozen scowls as Manager Harris conferred with the recruit.

"It's a tough spot for a manager," I replied, "two possibilities are open, wait out the pitcher to the limit, and not hit until the count of two strikes, or get the pitcher in the hole and swing on the crippler."

"If I was the manager I believe I would have Miller wait Watson out and not hit until he was compelled to. It is very possible that Watson feels the strain and may be just as wild as the other New York pitchers. It's worth going the limit on."

Where Experts Disagree

Miller took the first one, a very bad pitch, for ball one. It looked as if he intended to wait the pitcher out. He held at third or thrown out at the plate. In one game a short fly ball fell safe and decided the game.

Pitching to a man noted as a star in the pinches rather than taking a chance on some one else. This was done with the winning run on second and lost a ball game.

No sport offers the opportunities for second guessing, and first guessing, as does baseball. I am learning lots of things from the press box.

Not playing the outfield in close with one down score tied and bases filled. In such a case a short fly could be handled and the winning run either held at third or thrown out at the plate.

What should Miller do? Would it be good ball for him to continue to wait out the New York pitcher? Or should he try to get the pitcher in the hole and then hit?

There was considerable delay at this point as Pitcher John Watson was summoned from the bullpen in far right field.

"How will Washington play it, AT ALUMNI FIELD FRIDAY AFTERNOON"

Lowell high will go after Boston high school of commerce at Alumni field tomorrow afternoon. Lowell should win, if one were to judge by comparative records, but records don't count much in football these days.

The red and gray eleven needn't be too confident in staking up against the Bostonians. They may provide an unexpected upset.

For this reason, Coaches Linton and Pierotti resumed practice sessions yesterday by sending the boys through a stiff workout. Particular attention being directed to hit low and hard, instead of high, as they did in the Manchester game.

Last Monday Lawrence high defeated Commerce, 31 to 6. Lowell will try to better that mark, if possible. All the regulars in line, hopes are high.

Faculty Manager James Conway, represents the attitude of the Manchester team in claiming that Lowell need unfailingly win in the holiday encounter.

With regard to the allegation that the New Hampshire eleven was not hospitably received, the faculty manager points to the fact that the team was requested to use the locker room between halves, but elected to remain on the field. That was their own business.

After the game, the high school gymnasium was thrown open to the visitors.

"KID" SULLIVAN KAYOS BALLERINO

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Steve (Kid) Sullivan is gradually adding value and prestige to his somewhat doubtful junior lightweight division. The new champion successfully defended his title for the second time last night by knocking out Mike Ballerino in the fifth round.

Sullivan, outpointed by Ballerino before he won the crown from Johnny Dundee, has acquired poise and confidence with the honor and promises to cut a clear niche for himself in fistie circles by fighting well and often.

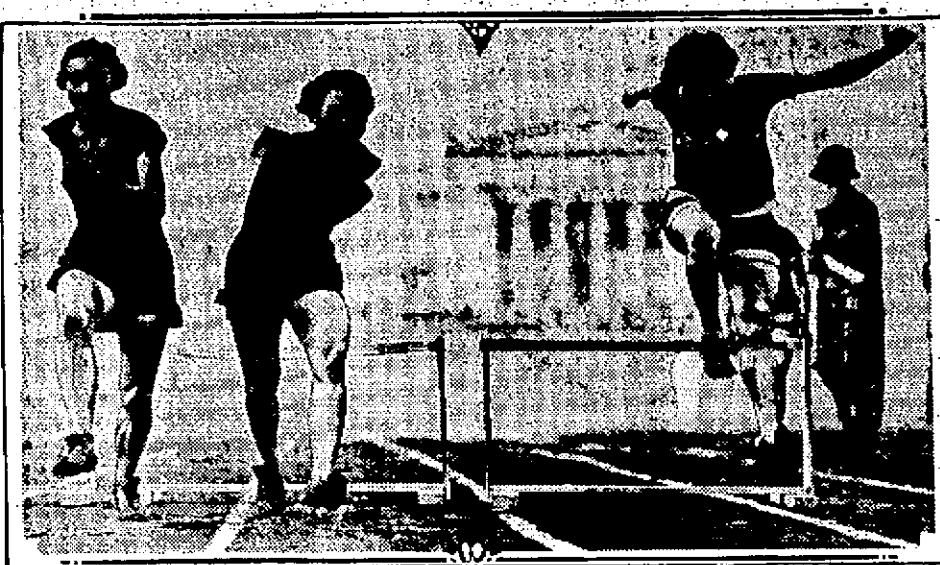

LEWIS WINS OVER GEO. KOTSONAROS

EL PASO, Texas, Oct. 15.—Ed (Strangler) Lewis, successfully defended his world's heavyweight wrestling championship by defeating George Kotsonaros, Greek challenger, in straight falls here last night. The first fall was scored in fifty minutes, the second in two minutes. Lewis headlock won him both falls.

HOPPE ACCEPTS CHALLENGE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Willie Hoppe will accept the challenge of Young Jack Schaefer for a special bout, line match upon conditions. These are that they play two blocks of 3,200 points each, instead of one of 1,600 as Schaefer proposed, and that the match take place during the last two weeks of November. Hoppe is willing to go to the coast for the test.

London suburbs have suffered from a plague of daddy-long-legs, or crane flies.

WHO SAID "WEAKER SEX?"

We don't want to be misunderstood when we call your attention to these girls' legs—or limbs, if you prefer. They show the powerful muscles of the finely trained runner—fully as powerful and highly developed as those of a man. Miss Norma Zilk (right) of Lakeview High School is shown winning the intermediate hurdle race at Chicago. Miss Elizabeth Sheffield of Hyde Park High, who finished second, is in the center, and her sister Margaret at the left.

BROWN'S SINISTER KICKER

The presence on the team of Captain Jim Sheldon makes Brown University a fairly formidable contender for football honors. Sheldon has had three years' experience and is fast and a sure tackler. He's red-headed, a fighter and, you will notice attacks the ball with his left dog.

MANTY WANTS TO MEET MURPHY AGAIN

The following self explanatory letter was received from Johnny Nutter, manager of Charlie Manty, yesterday:
38 Morgan St.
New Bedford, Mass.
October 14th, 1924.

Sporting Editor, Lowell Sun.
Dear Sir: Charlie Manty is now the leading 130 pounder in New England. As good a judge of boxers as the veteran referee, Jack Sheehan, made that announcement publicly in your city two weeks ago when Manty stopped McAdams.

Billy Murphy is evidently on the skids while Manty today is better than Murphy ever was. Although I do not want to pick on a cripple, as it were, I feel that Manty is due another match with Murphy if the Lowell boy will meet him.

Manty has lost three decisions to Murphy. I will not say anything about the decisions but I feel that if Manty knocks Murphy out the state will be clean. Manty is ready to box Murphy in any spot in New England.

Very truly yours,
JOHN NUTTER,
Manager of Charlie Manty.

TEXTILE WILL MEET RHODE ISLAND TEAM

Lowell Textile faces big game with Rhode Island state team at the "Textile" campus Saturday afternoon. The visitors are no sinecure may be gleaned from the fact that they have participated in several close struggles against heavier teams this season and emerged in a blaze of glory.

In holding Providence to a 6-0 score last Saturday, Coach Ed Crowley's charges demonstrated that they are capable of coming back in the face of disheartening circumstances. After losing to St. Michael's the week previous, the Textile men buckled right down to business again, and showed well against Providence. In fact, it was their best exhibition to date and one that cast a scare into Rhode Island scouts, who were in the stands.

Three or four new men have been added to the squad and the outlook for future success is exceedingly bright. New players will be directed at the Rhode outfit Saturday, and a local win is anticipated. The kick-off will be at 2:30 o'clock.

TENNIS MAKES GREAT STRIDES IN FRANCE

PARIS, Oct. 15.—For the first time in the history of lawn tennis, France expects to be able to boast during the coming season of a player ranked among the first five in the world.

Rene Lacoste is not only the unanimous choice of the sporting world for the position of ranking No. 1 player of France for the year 1924, but the series all agree that he should come immediately after William Tilden, Vincent Richards and William Johnston of America and J. O. Anderson of Australia in the world's tennis ranking.

The French Tennis federation will announce its rankings about Nov. 1, and is expected to place Lacoste first, Jean Borotra second and Henri Cochet third. This will break the triple which has existed in France during the present year, Borotra, Cochet and Lacoste having been placed even in the 1923 ranking as No. 1 players.

Tennis has made great strides in France since the armistice. Recently, in a tournament organized on the courts of the racing club of France and open to all, 75 youngsters of both sexes entered.

Lowell Elks Off for Boston Saturday Night

Many Lowell Elks are going to Boston next Saturday to attend the dinner given by the Boston Lodge at the Copley Plaza Hotel to its exalted ruler, Daniel J. Kane, who has just returned from Europe. Joseph M. Sullivan, P. E. R., and chairman of the dinner committee says: "Most of our members prefer the Elcho cigar, so we have ordered Elchos for the after dinner smoke. The long Havana filler, I am told, gives the Elcho the mildness which makes it so popular."

INTEREST CENTERS IN DARTMOUTH-YALE GAME AT NEW HAVEN

Sensing Another Upset Fans Look Forward to Game in Bowl Next Saturday—Yale Warned of Impending Disaster Prepares for Strenuous Battle

NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (By the Associated Press).—Sensing another upset, interest in the week-end gridiron contests has veered sharply to New Haven, where Yale and Dartmouth will clash.

The Green swept through its preliminary games with 78 modestly that has fostered confidence in an ability to "go out and clean up" this season. Yale, standing in the path, must be destroyed.

Yale, with its great squad of 1923 disrupted by graduation and ineligibility rules, has not been impressive in its reconstruction. The stage was set for a Dartmouth victory.

But preparations in Hanover were a bit too feverish and the confidence overdone. The expert and its way into print and into New Haven. Yale was warned; and a team with a football tradition, regardless of its physical make-up, will be hard to do after it has been warned of impending disaster.

Now, both elevens will trot on the field in a big game aimed at the spiritual element will be added to the physical; and Yale has so much confidence in its own fighting qualities that odds, once leaning toward Dartmouth, have now been declared even.

The big punch of the Green and one of the first candidates for "all honors" to arise this year, is "Swede" Oberlander, a lineman, reformed into a halfback. He is a 200-pound triple-threat player with ten touchdowns already.

In addition to the ordinary qualifications, the Nordic menace to Yale is credited with a hamlike hand, a stiff arm like a board and interfering ability of a high order.

So, Yale prepares for "Swede" if he passes the Blue test he will be entitled to further consideration as one of the great backfield men of the year.

Dartmouth will meet Pond and Collette, who ran through the Blue test for a touchdown yesterday, and Eddie Bench, converted into a quarterback and picked as the possible successor to Bill Mulhally in the Yale scheme for the season.

Other camps begin to announce the "out for the season" which opposing coaches read and sometimes write. Army reports Baxter out of the Notre Dame contest. Quarterback Terrill of Rutgers will be out of the Cornell game. Anich, an substitute line man, had a bone in his ankle broken at Columbia.

FOR PITCHER

Philadelphia Athletics Buy
"Lefty" Groves From the Baltimore Orioles

Price Tops by $100 the Former Record Sum Paid by Yankees for Babe Ruth

BAITIMORE, Oct. 16.—Robert M. "Lefty" Groves, the Baltimore International League club's pitching ace, was sold to the Philadelphia American League club today for a sum announced by Manager Jack Dunn as $100,000. This price tops by $100 the former record sum paid by the Yankees to the Red Sox for Babe Ruth.

Groves, who hails from Lonsdale, Md., is 25 years of age, weighs 170 pounds and is six feet two inches tall. He has been playing professional baseball for six years. In his five years as an Oriole pitcher he has earned 1,077 batters and has won 108 and lost 36 games. His part in winning the sixth straight championship for the Baltimore team this year was 26 victories, 6 defeats and 230 strikeouts. Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, made the offer for Groves at Oriole Park after watching him pitch against the Athletics several weeks ago. Mack is quoted as saying: "A star finger will make a team a flag contender in 1927. I believe I have that finger in Groves." Since he bought the Baltimore club from New Haven in 1913, Jack Dunn has developed and sold players for the high figure of $100,000. By a coincidence his first big deal was with Connie Mack to whom he sold "Lefty" Russell for $11,000 thirteen years ago. Dunn's second largest deal was the sale of Jack Bentley, pitcher of the New York Nationals for $72,500.

$135,000 INVOLVED IN RUTH DEAL

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The price involved in the purchase of "Lefty" Groves, Baltimore southpaw ace, by the Philadelphia Athletics announced today as $100,000 does not eclipse the amount involved in the acquisition of Babe Ruth, according to Edward G. Barrow, secretary of the New York Yankees.

Ruth was obtained from the Boston Red Sox in 1920 in a deal involving $100,000, Barrow said, and the $100,000 of this was represented in cash at that time.

JOHNSON AND GRIFFITH TO CONFER AGAIN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The major post-season problem of the world champion Senators—whether Walter Johnson will be on next season's roster—remained unsolved today. "Old Barney," who has been Washington's pitching mainstay for 18 years and is the dean of American League hurlers, announced last February that he intended to purchase an interest in some minor league club, preferably in the Pacific Coast league, so as to give his family a permanent home. The family's present home is Reno, Nev., and now that some of his children are of school age, the age of pitching seems to feel he should settle down in the west.

Immediately after returning from a barnstorming trip Monday, he held a conference with Clark Griffith on plans for 1927 but after an hour's discussion no conclusion had been reached. No date has been set for further consideration of the matter but it was indicated they would resume their discussion soon.

DAVIS QUOTES BURNS ON WHEELER CASE

QUINCY, Ill., Oct. 16.—In an authorized statement issued here last night John W. Davis, democratic candidate for president, explained the basis for charges made by him against George B. Lockwood, secretary of the republican national committee, and ex-Atty-Gen. Daugherty, and reiterated his declaration that they "collaborated in an effort to procure evidence that might embarrass Senator Wheeler."

Mr. Davis said he had received a telegram from Mr. Lockwood complaining of the charges which the democratic candidate made recently in a speech in Indiana. His statement last night, the candidate said, was not an answer to Mr. Lockwood and he intimated none would be made.

"I am not at all concerned with any opinion Mr. Lockwood may entertain regarding myself," Mr. Davis said in the statement. "Even if he were a person of sufficient consequence to deserve a reply, the tone he has chosen to adopt would render it unnecessary to notice anything he might say."

"Lockwood's telegram, made public for purposes of republican propaganda, must have the purpose, however, of focusing public attention again on one of the most dastardly efforts ever known to utilize the machinery of the department of justice for purely political purposes."

"His pretended indignation is a little belated, however, since in my reply three weeks ago to former Atty. Gen. Daugherty's letter, I made the identical statement I made at Terre Haute, to the effect that agents of the department of justice and representatives of the republican national committee under Mr. Lockwood's direction had collaborated in an effort to produce evidence that might embarrass Senator Wheeler. I did not make the charge lightly but on sworn testimony of William J. Burns and Blair Coan."

"On the 7th day of May, 1924, William J. Burns who was then director of the bureau of investigation in the department of justice, testified before the Brookhart committee, which was investigating that department, that he knew Lockwood and had consulted with him frequently concerning Senator Wheeler's case before any indictment was found."

"The third letter, from James H. Wilson, of Clarkburg, said John W. Davis had volunteered to defend him and other miners arrested in the 1927 strike, and 'got us out of trouble.'"

GEORGE SHEEHAN ON INJURED LIST

Word has reached this city from Dean academy in Franklin to the effect that George "Pete" Sheehan, former captain of the high school football team and prominent all-around athlete, sustained a torn ligament in a football scrimmage at Dean a few days ago, and is now on the injured list at the Franklin institution.

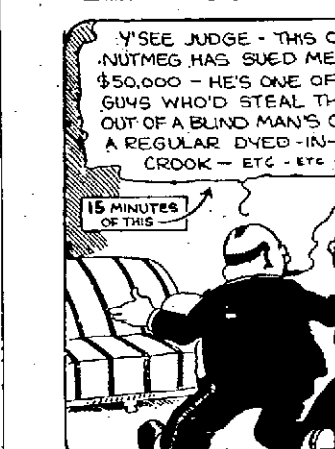

Sheehan entered Franklin this fall with Dan O'Connor, ex-O.M.I. Cadet star, and was being used regularly at quarterback on the varsity. O'Connor is playing the fullback position on the same team. Due to the delicacy of Sheehan's injury, it is probable that he will not participate in another game this year. Two years ago, while starring for Lowell high against Concord, N. H., high, he broke a leg and was unable to enter competition for a long time.

DEER HUNTING SEASON IN MAINE

BANGOR, Me., Oct. 16.—The deer hunting season in the eastern and northern sections of the state opened at sunrise today under conditions regarded by game wardens and guides as promising an unusually successful season.

Reports have been coming in from all sections that deer have been seen in larger numbers than for several years and many moose have also been seen near the isolated villages. Bears are also reported as unusually numerous. The deer season in the eight counties in this section closes Nov. 30 at sundown.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST Prospects of Clash Between Rival Factions at Chicago Convention

CLEVELAND, Oct. 16.—(By the Associated Press)—Prospects of a clash between advocates of "war defense" and delegates opposed to war in any form loomed here today as the international convention of the Disciples of Christ went into its third day session. Opposing resolutions were drafted by the "defenders" and "pacifists" and were learned late last night.

Kirby Page, of New York, author and writer against war, was said to have drafted a resolution declaring that "the church, as the body of Christ and the bearer of the good news of fatherhood and brotherhood should not sanction war, or bless its weapons, but should follow a more excellent way and thus set an example for the state."

The opposing resolution was said to have been drawn by Rev. W. Paul Marsh of Middleton, Ind., a chaplain in the army reserves; Rev. D. A. Abbott, editor of the Christian Evangelist, of Louisville, and others, and asks that "the convention go on record as opposing war excepting when our country is being attacked, and that we are opposed to war of aggression in any form, and further be it resolved that the chaplains in the United States army and navy and organized reserves be commended for their work and that more assistance be given them by appointing a standing committee on chaplaincy."

The pacifist resolution, according to Chaplain Marsh, means "the church will withdraw all moral support and aid from the army and navy chaplains and will, in effect, slap the United States government in the face."

Both proposed resolutions, it was said, favor leaving the individual conscience whether the individual should participate in war or take an attitude of non-resistance.

SEEKS FACTS ON FUNDS OF THREE PARTIES

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—(By the Associated Press)—Information as to the funds collected and distributed by the three major political parties—Republican, Democratic and Independent—was sought today by the special senate committee on campaign expenditures.

Senator William E. Borah, Republican, Idaho, demanded detailed financial reports of the three national organizations. These were prepared for submission at the first sitting of the investigation by a majority of the committee, the reports will be analyzed carefully before the investigators turn their attention to the charges of Senator La Follette, independent presidential candidate, that the republican organization is collecting large sums for use in states listed as doubtful.

Frank P. Walsh, Kansas City attorney, acting as the personal representative of Senator La Follette, will present documents and other data upon which the Wisconsin senator based his charges. The precise nature of the matter in the possession of Mr. Walsh has not been revealed publicly or to the members of the committee.

PRESIDENT'S "CAUTION" COSTS PUBLIC HEAVILY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Declaring President Coolidge apparently had decided to delay action on the sugar tariff petition until after the election, Chairman Shaver of the democratic national committee said in a formal statement today that the president's "caution" was costing the public heavily during every day of delay.

"This further delay in letting the cost of living by decreasing in part an unnecessary and unjustifiable tax on a common staple of the people's food will be said to millions of American housewives," said Chairman Shaver.

"A delay of only a month in proclaiming the resolution which the commission urged and the public expected will mean a loss of $2,000,000 to consumers and a corresponding gain for the beneficiaries of the tax."

"This is the sort of caution that costs the consumers of sugar more in a month than it takes to pay the president's salary and maintain the White House for an entire year. Whoever may benefit from this 'caution' it is certain that the users of sugar, including millions of women, are losing by it."

LOWELL'S COMMUNITY CHEST CAMPAIGN

Monday, November 10, has been named as the date for the official opening of Lowell's community chest campaign. Announcement to that effect was made by Secretary-Manager George F. Wells of Lowell chamber of commerce, this noon.

The decision to defer the start of the campaign until next month, was reached yesterday afternoon, at a special conference held in chamber headquarters and attended by Mr. J. A. Wiles of the American City Bureau, Boston. It was felt that better results would be obtained if preparations were not made too hastily, and it was unanimously agreed that November 10 would be the proper time for the city-wide canvass to begin.

Mr. Wiles will have direct supervision of the Lowell organization of the proposed community chest, and in his campaign will have the aid of an experienced assistant familiar with promotion work in American cities similar to Lowell. It is predicted that the canvass of the city will take approximately five weeks' time.

Chambers of commerce officials and other leading citizens, who believe in the community chest plan thoroughly and expect it to solve many problems involved in the extension of charities to needy and deserving inhabitants of the city, are enthusiastically backing the effort of the promoters of the November campaign. All expect success will follow their efforts in behalf of the proposed community chest for the future welfare of Lowell.

The names of fifteen Lowell institutions interested in the community chest campaign are entitled to a list of organizations faithfully backing the November effort in behalf of "organized charity."

CHICAGO'S BUSINESS PROSPECTS BRIGHT

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—Newspaper publishers and national advertising experts, here for the 11th annual convention of the audit bureau of circulation, last night expressed their belief that the country's business outlook was good, despite the presence of some election-year pessimism.

M. M. Murdoch, publisher of the Eagle, Wichita, Kan., said:

"The year 1931 will go down in our industrial history as most remarkable. It is a national election year and the hottest, most trade-attention-diverting year outside of war times that we have seen in more than a decade. The prospective settlement of European affairs is the only offset to our own chaotic state, of public mind, and the possibilities of the national election being a draw, a radical governmental disturbance viewed with sincere if unjustified alarm by a large body of our commercial citizenship."

"Despite the unfavorable influences and inevitable distractions that must always attend our acquisitive system of trade, business is good and getting better, although the rest of the country does not measure up to Kansas, which is now feeding the world its 150,000,000-bushel wheat crop."

A. G. Newberry, president of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' association, declared that "business will get steadily better throughout the remainder of the year and turn into 1932 at a record-breaking clip."

According to John W. Sifton, secretary-treasurer of the Manitoba Free Press, Winnipeg, Man., the press of business in the Canadian prairie provinces shows decided improvement "in spite of a somewhat wet harvest, and threshing delayed by wet weather."

WOMEN EXCLUDED AS LETTERS ARE READ

MIDDLEBURG, Pa., Oct. 16.—With all women and children excluded from the courtroom by order of Judge Potter, the alleged love messages of Ralph Shadel, 18-year-old farmhand, to Mrs. Alvin Willow, on trial at the murder of her husband, were read to the jury today. The notes are alleged to have been written in jail after the arrest of both Shadel and Mrs. Willow.

Mrs. Willow was the only woman in the courtroom when the letters were read. The court asked the newspapermen not to quote from any of the messages.

A dozen women of the neighborhood where the Willows lived, testified that her reputation had been good.

Shadel is serving a 10 to 20-year sentence for his part in the killing of Harvey C. Willow. Shadel's defense was that he was urged to kill Willow by the latter's wife.

FAILED TO BROADCAST LA FOLLETTE SPEECH

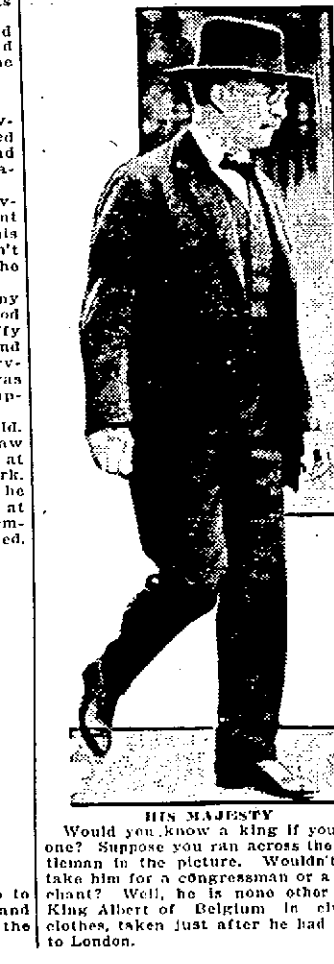

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Secretary Hoover today disclaimed responsibility for the failure of a Des Moines, Ia., radio station to broadcast an address last night by Senator La Follette, the independent candidate for president.

"No monopoly has been conferred on any broadcasting station in the country," said the secretary's statement. "Anyone who likes is free under the law, and the practice of the department of commerce to erect a broadcasting station and say anything over it that he pleases."

"Mr. La Follette's attack upon the administration in this connection is particularly unjustified, since the department has done everything in its power to facilitate the broadcasting of his speeches."

FUNERAL OF SEN. BRANDENBERGER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Funeral services for Senator Frank Brandenger were held at the residence today with President Coolidge and other officials in attendance. Burial will be in New London, Conn., where another funeral service will be held after the body reaches there tomorrow.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—With buying orders predominating at the opening of today's stock market, prices turned upward. Most of the speculative favorites showed fractional gains and advances of a point or more were scored by other issues, including North American and Willys-Overland preferred. Oils were strengthened by a further decrease in crude oil production.

Buying of high-priced shares, including American Tobacco, Pullman and Nash Motor issues, which rose 1 to 3 points and heavy absorption of the new German bonds intensified the upward trend of prices in the early dealings. The German obligations, taken in blocks of $50,000 to $200,000 were pushed up to a record high price of 95 1/2. Standard Investment rails such as New York Central, responded to a broader inquiry and the oil shares attracted a large speculative following. Republic Steel reacted fractionally on the report of a deficit for the third quarter and several other stocks, including Lackawanna and United States Cast Iron Pipe were heavy on realizing. Leather issues were stronger. Foreign exchanges opened steady.

The main trend continued upward throughout the morning despite experimental selling of some of the popular industrials. Daidwin dropping a point and Stewart-Warner 2 1/2. United States Steel common crossed 106 and American Can was supported roundly. Its recent high level. Speculative interest in the rails diminished when several industrials and specialties were taken in hand by operators on the long side. Railway Steel Spring, Central Leather preferred, American Hide and Leather preferred, American Water Works, All-American Cables and Pacific Coast preferred rising 2 1/2 points. With the allotments of German bonds becoming known to many dealers, offerings on the stock exchange increased, driving the price down to a point or so from its early record high. Call money opened at 3 1/2 per cent.

The subsidence of speculative interest on the long side of the market for many of the popular leaders encouraged a resumption of selling in the afternoon which carried down prices of a number of influential shares from one to three points. Daidwin and Hudson dropped 1/2 point. American Steel and Wire, General Electric and Baldwin from 1 1/2 to 2 points lower. Worthington Pump, United States Rubber first preferred, Woolworth, Norfolk and Western and Gulf States Steel were also weak.

Mr. Hodges told the committee that the $174,317 gross total received by the republican organization had come from 16,302 contributors, the largest sum received from any single contributor being $25,000.

"Those contributing from $1 to $99 numbered 14,922; those giving from $100 to $500 numbered 1446; those giving from $501 to $1000 numbered 287; those contributing from $1001 to $2500 totaled 105; those giving from $2501 to $5000 numbered 44, and those contributing over $10,000 numbered 12."

Mr. Hodges was unable to give off-hand the names of those who had contributed $10,000 or more to the republican fund, except that he knew William Wrigley, Jr., of Chicago, had contributed $25,000. He was requested to prepare a detailed statement during the noon recess.

La Follette Fund

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—(By the Associated Press)—The La Follette-Wheeler national organization has collected a total of $150,000 in its presidential campaign and expended $155,052, John A. Nelson, campaign manager testified today before a senate investigating committee.

In a prepared statement read to the committee Congressman Nelson said that the contributions had been received from approximately 12,000 contributors.

Questioned by Senator Cawaway, democratic, Arkansas, about press reports that labor organizations are spending "large sums" on behalf of the independent presidential ticket, Representative Nelson said he had no information on that subject.

Representative Nelson estimated for Senator Borah that the expenses of his organization for the remaining three weeks of the campaign "would not exceed $50,000" including $5000 weekly promised by the conference on progressive political actions, through which the railroad brotherhoods are making their contributions. Most of those are on the basis of $1 per contribution, Nelson said.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 2

"We've got to frighten that gorilla away," said the captain of the good ship Hotsy Clair, which had brought the exploring party to Africa. "Oh, that will be easy," replied the guide. And he took a rifle from over his shoulder and loaded it. "Don't shoot him," yelled Jack.

Then the gun banged away and Jack expected to see the gorilla fall over. Instead he merely looked up and then turned and leaped up into the nearest tree. "I only shot over his head," laughed the guide. Gorillas are afraid of gun shot noise and I knew this one would soon get out of sight."

"The aviator thanked the guide and then announced that he and Jack had best be getting on their way before something really did happen to his plane. Jack hopped to the side of the big machine and pecked into the rear seat. Much to his surprise he saw Flip cuddled down into it. (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

Olive Roberts Barton

"USE IT LIKE A LASSO," HE EXPLAINED

Dacy Jones sent for his magic anchor and gave it to Nick.

"Use it like a lasso," he explained. "A lasso wouldn't be a bit of use in the sea any more than an anchor would be in a desert. Just hang it over the sea horse's neck and when you see Tweeknose, let out the rope and throw it. It will be sure to catch him."

"But," said Nancy and Nick and the sand man and Captain Pennywinkle all together. "But—"

"But what?" Dacy Jones wanted to know. "Why is everybody looking so queer 'n everything?"

"Because," explained Nick, "our sea horses aren't much bigger than pollywogs and the anchor is as big as a bathtub."

"Why, so it is?" declared Dacy Jones. "But what of it? Look at your two children. I bet you anything that you used to be as big as real children."

"We are real children," declared Nancy. "The reason we are so little enough to ride on sea horses is that we can make ourselves any size at all as long as we have our magic shoes along."

"Yo, ho, ho, and a bottle of rum!" roared Dacy Jones. "Well, this anchor is magic, too. I wouldn't have it if it wasn't. Just watch!"

"Ink, wink. Now ponder and think. Down under the water. It's right you should shrink."

And instantly the magic anchor shrank until it was small enough for a watch chain.

Dacy Jones picked it up and handed it to Nick. "Here you are," he said. "If this doesn't do the work and catch that pesky Tweeknose, I'm very much mistaken."

"But how can I get it back to you?" asked Nick.

"Children always come home to roost," said Dacy Jones. "Just drop it into the ocean any time, any place and it will come right back."

The twins and the sand man and Captain Pennywinkle thanked Dacy Jones and made him goodbye.

Then they started again to look for Tweeknose on the bottom of the ocean.

One good thing they did. It just happened that they passed the magic mill that ground out the salt that made the ocean bitter. You know! The one the dwarf lost overboard off a boat and that has been grinding out salt ever since. And when the twins came up to the mill and saw it, Nick said:

"Ink, wink. Now ponder and think. Down under the water. It's right you should shrink."

The mill began to shrink and it shrank and shrank until it disappeared altogether.

"I'm sure I am ever so much obliged," said Captain Pennywinkle. "The sea was getting so salty it gave me a headache. Oh, look out!"

For there was Tweeknose sitting on a swordfish and coming right toward them.

Nick threw the magic anchor as Dacy Jones had said and pulled him off, and Captain Pennywinkle went right up and grabbed him.

But in the scramble the swordfish's sharp nose tore the bag of sleepy sand and it scattered all over the bottom of the sea.

"In, ho, ha!" laughed the dreadful little gnome. "You've eat me but not the sleepy sand. It is gone forever."

"Not if I know anything," said the sand man.
